Big Night Raid On French Coast

FOLKESTONE, Eng. (AP)—For the third consecutive night the R.A.F. blasted away tonight at the German-held French coast from Boulogne to Dunkerque.

Shortly after the beginning of the attack a terrific explosion occurred, apparently between Calais and Cap Gris Nez and a big fire was observed there for some time afterward.

Reflections of bomb explosions and an aircraft gunfire could be seen above the fogbank which wrapped the cliffs.

The night attacks followed a daylight sweep against the Netherlands coast and northern France.

Medal Not Accepted

NEW YORK (CP)—Gertrude Lawrence, British stage actress, today declined a medal from the Finnish government honoring her for her Finnish relief activities during the Russian campaign of 1939-40. She said the medal was made "by a government which is now the vassal of Nazi Germany."

Reef Openings Mined

BRISBANE (AP)—All openings in the Great Barrier reef along the northeast coast of Australia from the Arlington Reef to Anchoray, New Guinea, have been mined, the Australia Naval Board announced today. Two other minefields have been laid west of Thursday Island, situated in Torres Strait, between Queensland and New Guinea.

Planes Not Ours

OTTAWA (CP)—Military airplanes reported seized by the United States to be forwarded to Russia while in transit from Canada to Peru were at no time the property of the Canadian government, the External Affairs Department said this afternoon. (In New York it was reported today more than $1,000,000 worth of bombing planes and equipment were removed from two freighters for diversion to Russia.)

Meningitis Cases

VANCOUVER (CP)—A 20-year-old girl was taken to a hospital here today suffering from spinal meningitis while a nine-year-old lad suspected of having the disease is under observation. It was stated this afternoon. There have been 40 cases of spinal meningitis here this year.

Anscomb Prepares Reply to Farr

Reginald Hayward, campaign manager for Herbert Anscomb, Conservative candidate in Oak Bay, said today Mr. Anscomb is preparing a reply to the challenge issued by Prof. E. S. Farr, Liberal candidate, to debate the election issues on the same platform.

Mr. Hayward said Mr. Anscomb's reply would be made public shortly, but he did not indicate whether the candidate proposes to accept or reject Prof. Farr's challenge.

First Ship Launched

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia's first steel cargo vessel of the war—a 10,000-tonner—was launched today at the Burrard Drydock plant, and the keel for another laid on the same ways.

As in other Canadian yards, the huge merchant shipbuilding program of Wartime Merchant Shipbuilding Limited is in full swing. It was a gala day.

Mrs. W. C. Woodward, wife of Lieutenant-Governor Woodward, smashed a bottle of British Columbia champagne across the bow and christened the vessel Fort St. James in honor of a historic Hudson's Bay post established in this province in 1806 and still operated by the company.

A nine-year-old evacuee girl, Anne England, whose father is a journalist at Wallington, near Croydon, England, was co-sponsor and pushed the release button.

5 More Hangings

BERNE, Switzerland (AP)—The Hungarian news agency says five persons have been hanged in the Hungarian village of Ujvidek after being condemned for espionage in favor of Russia. Two others were sentenced to 15 and 12 years respectively, on the same charge.

Britain Will Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sir Earle Page, Australian minister to Britain, arrived here today by clipper and declared "America is giving us tremendous help in winning the war."

"There has never been any doubt that Britain will win," he said.

3 R.C.A.F. Deaths

OTTAWA (CP)—Deaths of two Canadians in service overseas and one in an automobile accident in Canada were reported in a casualty list issued this afternoon by the R.C.A.F. Seven were reported missing in overseas operations. There were no B.C. men on the list.

Air force dead and missing reported since the war started now total 806.

60 Days for Smoker

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP)—John D. Finlayson, 35, of Kincardine, was sentenced to a jail term of 60 days when he pleaded guilty today to smoking in a prohibited area at a war industry.

Flea Epidemic

VANCOUVER (CP)—Vancouver is suffering from a flea epidemic, Dr. Stewart Murray, city health officer, reported to the Metropolitan health committee today, and he suggested the use of sawdust for fuel may be a contributing factor.

New Nazi Warships?

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Rear-Admiral Yates Stirling, former chief of staff of the United States navy, said in an address here that although people of conquered European nations were aroused against Hitler, the Germans were using their shipyards and slave labor to produce warships.

"Hitler," he said, "might surprise the world within a short time with new battleships of a radical design."

JAPS MASS MIGHT ON SIBERIA BORDER—Here's the first picture showing Japanese forces on the Manchukuo-Siberia border, where a possible invasion of Siberia and Russia is hinted by Tokyo under demands of Germany, her Axis partner. Members of this Japanese anti-aircraft battery wear gas masks, getting "set" within shooting distance of Russia.

Nazis Surge On Over Own Dead Moscow Defenders Trap Parachutists

Associated Press

A fiercely-driven new menace to Moscow was acknowledged today by the Red Army, which declared the Germans were swarming forward over their own heaped dead in a mighty attempt to turn the capital's Volga River defence flank near Kalinin, railway centre 95 miles northwest of Moscow.

Admitting the Nazi masses of men and steel still surged forward, Red Star, organ of the Soviet army, said nevertheless that German parachutists seeking a foothold behind the Russian lines had been wiped out, and that Moscow's grim defenders had pinched off wedges thrust deep into their lines.

Some of the parachutists were reported trapped behind the Kalinin line, where armored units had smashed to the approaches of the city.

Directly west of Moscow, other German forces were reported in London to have rolled half-way from Vyazma toward the capital, and to the south the German press claimed the munitions-making town of Tula, 100 miles from Moscow, had fallen to the tightening Nazi semicircle. Tula has a population of 150,000.

Every Russian To Use Gun

The Soviet press today urged a people's defence of Moscow, such as that at Leningrad, with every man using a gun and every stone defended.

"From behind every stone on the approaches to Moscow the enemy must be met with fire and steel," cried Izvestia, the government newspaper. "Every factory must become an arsenal forging arms for the defenders. Every man must learn to handle a gun."

Declare Moscow Will Not Fall

While Red Star admitted the Germans had been able to advance, it declared:

"The enemy never will enter Moscow. He will choke in his own blood. Defence of the city must grow—not daily, but hourly, making the city impregnable."

Urgently it appealed to Red Army men never to abandon their arms on the battlefield.

"Lost arms—lost honor," it said. "You must follow the iron-clad rule—guard your arms better than your life."

Hitler Gambles All on Throw

While Red Star thus admitted the Soviet army's position was the most critical of the war, a high-ranking neutral observer in London commented:

"Hitler for the first time in two years of war has thrown every available gun and tank into one attack. If he fails to take Moscow or destroy the Russian armies in the present drive—and he well may fail—Germany is finished until spring, and might well have lost the war."

Reporting on the southern front, Reuters said today in a Moscow dispatch that the German advance east of Mariupol on the Sea of Azov had been stopped. The city is 100 miles west of Rostov, which lies at the mouth of the industrial Don valley.

Russian forces managed to withdraw and establish themselves in new positions, the agency said, and there it was reported the Germans suffered heavier losses than before Mariupol itself.

Germans Admit Soviet Counter-attacks

German military spokesmen said their forces were squeezing Moscow tighter, but reported strong Red army counter-attacks at the northern and southern flanks of the front—attacks perhaps designed to relieve the German pressure on the capital. They claimed these attacks were thrown back with heavy losses.

The German high command said Moscow was raided again Tuesday night by Nazi warplanes and fires started in "war vital objectives."

Battlefields and roads were covered by slush as a result of autumnal snow flurries and German commentators said that bad weather and poor roads were handicaps in the drive to the east.

While gains were claimed both northwest and south of Moscow, the German communiqué gave little detailed information except to boast that destruction of Russian forces encircled in the Bryansk sector southwest of Moscow was continuing.

Retreating Russians Burn All Villages

Newspaper dispatches pictured the Russians as retreating under the smashing blows of German

WOMEN, TOO, ARE PRISONERS OF WAR—Prominent in this official Finnish photo of Russian prisoners taken by the Finns in their drive against Red Army forces north of Leningrad are the two Soviet women at left. armored columns and dive-bombers, and said the Soviet troops were carrying out Premier Stalin's scorched earth policy.

"As far as the eye can see," wrote one German soldier-reporter, "the line of the Soviet retreat is marked by flaming houses, barns and villages set afire by the Bolshevik soldiery."

A Russian broadcast relayed to New York by the British Broadcasting Corporation said that Hitler is "losing the war on the road to Moscow. For him this road must be the road of death." The broadcast added that "from the east new units have arrived" to join the Russian forces.

In London an authoritative source said today it was possible the Germans had captured Rzhev, 125 miles west of Moscow, and were advancing some distance to the east.

He asserted Russian troops "have not lost their cohesion and still are fighting very hard, although the Germans are pressing them vigorously."

Conscription Of Labor Hinted

TORONTO (CP)—Conscription of labor in Canada is "under discussion" by the government, W. C. Coulter, member of the National Labor Supply Council, said today in a luncheon address to a service club here.

The government also has under consideration the freezing of wages at present levels and making order-in-council 7440 applicable to all industries and not only war industries as at present, he said.

P.C. 7440 recommends a cost-of-living bonus. Mr. Coulter said the government also is considering making P.C. 7440 a condition of all government contracts "and thus enforceable."

Touching on labor problems, he said the outlawing of all strikes for the duration of the war and the establishment of a court of review for labor disputes, as in Britain, were other steps now

Gun Crews Ready To Arm U.S. Ships

WASHINGTON (AP)—Navy Secretary Frank Knox today said the United States navy was ready to put guns and gun crews on merchant ships "as fast as the ships come to us," once Congress authorized such action.

He spoke as the House of Representatives rules committee granted parliamentary right of way to legislation lifting the Neutrality Act's ban against arming the ships. Earlier the foreign affairs committee had approved the proposal.

"We're satisfied now we can get enough guns to arm the ships," Knox told a press conference.

Under the special rule granted for consideration of the measure, the debate will run throughout tomorrow's session and for one hour on Friday. Leaders said they expected the house would pass the repealer well before nightfall of that day.

under the government's consideration

BOMBER MISSING WITH 3 MEN

MONTREAL (CP)—The R.A.F. ferry command today announced a Lockheed Hudson bomber on delivery to United Kingdom is missing with three men, but did not say where it had disappeared.

The men were listed as follows: Radio Operator C. L. Larder, Delia, Alta.; First Officer W. A. Herron, Hatboro, Pa., and Capt W. J. Guy, Cardiff, South Wales.

78th Execution

PARIS (AP)—The Germans announced today the execution of the 78th firing squad victim in occupied France. They thus kept up a record of one execution daily thus far this week.

The announcement said Leon Lioust of Le Havre was shot for complicity with the enemy and Communist agitation against the German army's occupation. (He was sentenced October 7.)

Unrest Spreads Widely in Italy, Officials Shifted

LONDON (CP)—Reuters' news agency reported from the "French frontier" today that Mussolini, believed to be combating a difficult internal situation and growing unrest, has dismissed prefects of 10 Italian districts and a number of Fascist federal secretaries.

Florence, the agency said, changed its prefect and federal secretary the same day. Prefects in Bolzano, Catania, Spezia, Leghorn, Zara, Rovigo, Dieti, Pistoria and Potenza also were dismissed.

The agency said it understood popular discontent to be more acute in Tuscany than other Italian districts.

The ministry of corporations, Reuters' added, has ruled that heating in northern Italy will start December 1 and will be allowed only between 11 a.m. and 8 p.m., but it is expected that before the end of January the whole of northern Italy will be deprived of heating because the quantities of fuel available are only 30 per cent of 1940 supplies.

Conscription Speech Backed By Veterans

TORONTO (CP)—Col. C. E. Reynolds, president of the Canadian Corps Association, made public a telegram he sent today to Alex Walker of Calgary, president of the Canadian Legion, which said: "Accept my congratulations for determined stand you have taken reference total conscription for Canada."

Col. Reynolds also issued a statement saying "all veteran organizations now are united in the demand for national service and are joined in this demand by the men now serving at home and overseas."

Britain May Send Aces to Canada

LONDON (CP)—Sir Archibald Sinclair, Secretary of State for Air, is considering a plan to send to the dominions some of the R.A.F.'s ace bomber and fighter pilots who could be used to train and stimulate recruiting, it was learned reliably today.

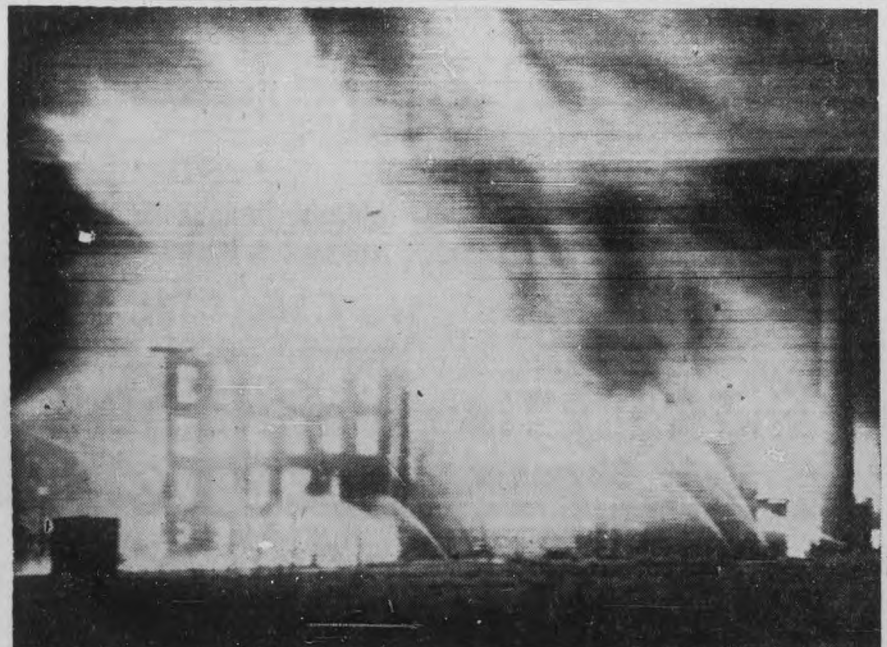

This source said the output of the Commonwealth Air Training Plan was 60 per cent higher in the second quarter of this year than in the first quarter and 100 per cent higher in the third quarter than in the first.

He added there is a plane available for every crew that comes over and stressed the necessity of hard work by workers in aircraft factories to produce machines for these crews.

Leaves $8,000,000

PORTLAND (AP)—An appraiser's inventory today set the value of the estate of E. S. Collins, Portland timberman who died December 18, 1940, at $8,094,153.

The estate is the third largest probated in Multnomah County's history. Mr. Collins willed large sums to charitable, philanthropic, religious and educational institutions.

$13,000,000 IN RUBBER, gas masks, barrage balloons and Firestone Rubber machinery and plant at Fall River, Mass., was destroyed in this conflagration. Although the F.B.I. instigated an inquiry, a theory of sabotage was eliminated.

Wider Basis For Allowances

OTTAWA (CP)—Increased dependents' allowances for British servicemen are expected to be followed by a similar step in Canada before long.

In London Tuesday it was announced increases would go into effect for Britons on the first payday in November and it was understood here that increases in allowances paid to dependents of Canadian soldiers, sailors and airmen are under government consideration.

It is also understood early action can be expected to authorize payment of allowances for more than two children.

The present allowance for non-commissioned ranks is $35 a month to a man's wife and $12 a month each for children, but not for more than two. Allowances for commissioned officers' wives start at $45 a month for the rank of lieutenant and increase with rank. The $12 monthly allowance for children is the same for all ranks.

Dairymen Demand More for Milk

ABBOTSFORD, B.C. (CP)—Fifty independent milk shippers, meeting at nearby Sumas, decided to discontinue shipment of milk to city milk distributors unless they receive 70 cents per pound butterfat, f.o.b. farm, non quota basis, by November 1.

The shippers claim the returns from the distributors have failed to keep pace with rising costs of production on the farms.

Post-war Reconstruction Planned by Railroads

VANCOUVER — Problems of reconstruction after the war and how the railroads are preparing to meet them, were dealt with by Robert C. Vaughan, president of Canadian National Railways, addressing the Vancouver Board of Trade at luncheon today, on "Transportation in Wartime."

"We have solved many problems, and we have many problems still ahead of us," the Canadian National chief said.

"First, we must see the war through. We are not worried about that. We know that the Canadian people can achieve what they set out to do. When the war is over, there will be other problems. We know how vast and complicated they will be. When we say we are not worried, I do not speak out of unthinking optimism. Something more is needed than blind faith or the will to win, however admirable they may be. I think the Canadian people have that something; I think they know how to face the facts, not only the facts of today, but the facts of tomorrow. As railway operators, we are not dismayed by the problems of reconstruction after the war. We are planning, we are preparing to meet them."

BRIGHTER PICTURE

Delving into the financial aspects of the Canadian National system, Mr. Vaughan painted a brighter picture. "We said at the beginning of this year that we hoped to make in 1941 a net earning on operations of $63,000,000, which would be sufficient to pay our fixed charges and taxes, and I feel confident that we will accomplish this, notwithstanding the many millions of dollars of additional expense which have been placed upon us this year on account of the cost-of-living bonuses, increased cost of materials and unemployment insurance."

"Our fixed charges alone are over $50,000,000 a year, more than double those of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the relationship of fixed charges to gross earnings is higher on the Canadian National than on any railway on this continent; but we cannot get away from those fixed charges. We may perhaps be able to refinance at a lower rate of interest when some securities become due, but, on the other hand, we may in some instances have to pay a higher rate of interest. There seems no hope of reducing those fixed charges to any great extent. The only way we can pay them is to receive sufficient gross earnings to enable us to produce the necessary net earnings to meet them, and while we hope to do that this year, we are running into a period of greatly increased cost of operation and we may have more difficult times ahead of us, unless our gross revenues continue to expand."

FIXED OVERHEAD

We, like every other manufacturer, wholesaler or retailer, have a definite fixed expense including overhead. No matter how we may economize, that fixed expense cannot be avoided—as our gross earnings exceed the pay-off our net earnings increase substantially—that has been demonstrated by the net earnings we are producing this year, so that as you will see, we must have the necessary gross earnings to produce the required net earnings.

The Canadian National Railways serve every province in Canada and reaches 88 per cent of the population of Canada, but we are obliged to operate much unprofitable mileage through sparsely-settled areas, and I feel we should be given some credit for that by the people of Canada who are our only shareholders.

Let us look at your own province for a moment and at some of the problems we face as a public utility. We are vitally interested in the development and settlement of the whole of British Columbia, but for the past few years we have devoted our attention particularly to the settlement of the territory between Red Pass Junction and Terrace in north Central British Columbia, and to the Peace River Block—that vast empire through which the Peace River flows and which is today as yet only sparsely settled.

B.C.'S EFFORT

British Columbia could be proud of her contribution to the war effort, Mr. Vaughan said.

Your vast resources have been and are available to Great Britain and her allies, as well as to Canada. Your great forests have supplied and are supplying billions of feet of lumber to assist the Motherland in construction and reconstruction, and it is certain, I think, that your timber will be needed in large quantities for rehabilitation after the war is over—wherever that may be. We pray it will not be too long delayed.

"You are providing foodstuffs in large quantities to the Motherland, and other parts of the Empire. I need hardly remind you of the importance of your salmon and other sea products. Your apples from the Okanagan Valley and other fruits are being shipped in large quantities to the United Kingdom."

"Your mineral resources are supplying much needed metals such as copper, zinc, lead and gold, as well as important chemicals and other products, and the demand for your coal is being stimulated by the shortage of oil. Your paper mills are busy."

"The Empire is fortunate that your several shipbuilding plants were available to turn out the minesweepers, corvettes and cargo boats that are so badly needed. I understand your shipyards have orders for more cargo vessels than have the yards in any other part of Canada."

"A number of your outstanding businessmen have given unselfishly of their time, ability and experience to the service of their country since the beginning of the war. I refer to such men as Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Woodward, H. R. MacMillan, J. P. D. Malkin, Mr. Stevenson and others."

"Your factories are also building aircraft."

"Above all, your men have volunteered in large numbers for service in the air, on land, and on the sea."

"These are only some of the ways in which your great province is contributing to the ultimate victory."

The railways and allied services, while still helping to carry on the normal business of everyday life, have willingly dedicated their facilities to the prosecution of the war, Mr. Vaughan pointed out.

Freight traffic of the Canadian National, he said, had increased until, in the month of September this year, it surpassed by 60 per cent the movement in the peak year of the last war, all of which had been done without serious delays to traffic. "Canada," he said, "is manufacturing and supplying to Great Britain and our allies much more than she did during the struggle of 1914-18. Then we supplied mostly shells, some ammunition, cartridge cases and fuses, and some cargo efficient use of anti-tank mines and artillery. During the time this valuable port has been denied the enemy it has required a force of 20,000 Germans and Italians to encircle the defences. These men have been supplied and provisioned through the already congested ports of Tripoli and Benghazi."

Tobruk throughout this period has been the key point of the western desert defence, but this value has not been earned lightly. The defenders have endured days, weeks and months of ceaseless fighting, bombing, shelling, patrolling, attack and counter-attack. There has been constant vigil under a relentless sun and in the face of biting dust.

For six months these men have carried out highly dangerous reconnaissance and night scouting, fighting on through the most trying conditions.

vessels were completed after the end of the war. Now we are providing all these, as well as naval and field guns, bombs, anti-aircraft guns, machine guns, anti-aircraft planes, including bombers, fighters and training planes, naval vessels, such as corvettes and minesweepers, ammunition and chemicals of various kinds, and many other materials that we did not furnish in the last war.

"The Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railroads are manufacturing in their own shops various kinds of war materials, such as guns and tanks. The railroads in Canada have been able to handle all these materials, as well as many troop movements, without serious difficulty, because of their increased efficiency."

Iranian Railway Needs Rolling Stock

OTTAWA (CP)—Conversations have been carried on with the Canadian government looking toward joint action by Canada, Australia and the United States to supply locomotives and rolling stock for the Trans-Iranian Railway, government officials said today.

But, so far as could be learned, no commitments have been made by this Dominion as suggested in a Washington dispatch Tuesday to the effect that the three countries would provide the bulk of new rolling stock needed for the main supply line to Russia's "back door."

"I know nothing about it," said Munitions Minister Howe, when asked if Canada would supply box cars as reported. He added that "there have been some conversations about it, but there is a shortage of steel here and I do not think we would care to take on an order of that kind."

At the external affairs department it was said there was nothing to be said at the moment on this aspect of aid to Russia.

GLASSY LANDING CAUSE OF CRASH

EDMONTON (CP)—The airplane crash Sunday at Sylvan Lake which killed Pilot Howard Anderson, 43, aircraft superintendent for the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company Limited, "had all the earmarks of a glassy water landing," Civil Aviation Inspector Kenneth Saunders of Edmonton, who investigated the crash, said on his return here today.

Mr. Saunders said complete results of his findings were being sent in a report to the Department of Transport at Ottawa.

A "glassy water landing," as explained by pilots, is treacherous. It means the water of the lake is without a ripple or wave, and from the height of a plane about to land it appears like a mirror and makes it extremely difficult to judge height above the level of the water surface.

Eric Gurney Randall of Trail, B.C., accountant for the Smelting Company and only passenger in Anderson's plane, escaped death in the crash.

Navy Deaths Total 422

OTTAWA (CP)—Two members of the Royal Canadian Navy were reported dead in the 56th official casualty list of the war today. The deaths brought the total number of navy dead and missing since the beginning of the war to 422.

Following is the list: Edward Hodgson, leading stoker, Dartmouth, N.S., and Arthur A. McNab, O.S., Calgary.

Canada Glycerine To Be Controlled

OTTAWA (CP)—Munitions Minister Howe today announced regulations for control of sale, distribution, consumption and use of glycerine under an order issued by J. D. Lorimer, chemicals controller.

"Canadian glycerine supplies are required to make the explosive which sends shells to blast the Hun," Mr. Howe said.

Free French Sub Crew Decorated

A SCOTTISH PORT (CP)—Sixteen members of the crew of a Free French submarine which attacked a German convoy off the Norwegian coast and then crawled home 500 miles through enemy minefields after being shaken by depth charges, received the Croix de Guerre with palm today from Gen. Charles de Gaulle. The Order of Liberation was conferred upon the vessel, the first Free French naval unit to be so honored.

Australia Pledges Maximum Output

MELBOURNE (CP)—Confidence in Australian workers is the keynote of a solidarity message which Prime Minister John Curtin has cabled to British workers.

"Australian workers are of the same blood, fighting for the same cause and the same free institutions and there is nothing that they will not do for Australia in this struggle," the message said. "Australian workmen since the onset of war have worked production miracles and we feel that a labor government in Australia means the national effort will be conducted more efficiently, speedily and victoriously."

Fighting Germans

LONDON (CP)—A Yugoslav legion spokesman today said Serbian resistance to German rule had reached the status of "rebellion," with an armed force of 80,000, led by Yugoslav army officers.

Armed bands are making travel impossible on roads in Serbia by firing on every automobile, the spokesman said. One group recently fired a munitions dump in an attack on Smederevo, only 20 miles from Belgrade, the capital.

Italian tactics in burning villages suspected of sheltering "cetiaks" (guerrillas) have failed, he added.

Blames Publicity For Breakdown

LONDON (CP)—Lord Newton, who was controller of prisoners from 1916 to 1919, raised in the House of Lords today the question of the breakdown in negotiations with the German government for repatriation of sick and wounded prisoners.

"I am afraid the desire for publicity unconsciously has been partly the cause of the deadlock which has now arisen," he said.

He added the negotiations had been conducted amiably until the BBC "intervened."

"The intervention of the BBC, who probably acted with the best intentions in the world, was misinterpreted by the Germans," he said.

Stoppage Threat At Gary Steel Mill

GARY, Ind. (AP)—A. C. I. O. union organizing drive threatened today to shut down the world's largest steel mill, busy with national defence production.

The Steel Workers' Organizing Committee placed pickets at the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation's Gary works early today in an effort to make every employee become a union member in good standing.

This factory, with a force of 22,000, is the biggest of three owned by Gary United States Steel Corporation subsidiaries which employ 35,000 persons. These plans lately have been turning out steel products estimated to amount to 100,000 tons a week. John Mayerik, president of the Gary works S.W.O.C. unit, ordered pickets to keep from the mill every worker who did not have a union card showing his dues paid up.

Union leaders said they would let enough workers into the plant to operate departments which supply the city with gas and the downtown section with electricity.

Since last Thursday, an American Federation of Labor organizer has been signing up steel workers in a federal union. He predicted he would have 2,000 applications by Saturday.

AMERICAN MISSING
LONDON (CP)—Gilmore C. Daniel, 23, of Skatook, Okla., a fighter pilot in the American Eagle Squadron, is reported missing from a recent operation over the English Channel.

ADAM LEWIS DIES

TORONTO (CP)—Adam L. Lewis, 65, president of the Southam Press, Toronto, Ltd., died Tuesday at his suburban Forest Hill village home. He was honorary president of the Toronto Graphic Arts Association and former president of the United Typothetae of America.

Born on a farm near the village of Ayr, he joined the R. G. MacLean Company as office boy in 1895 and before many years was actively associated with the firm's management. In February, 1912, he joined the Southam Press as manager and in 1929 became vice-president. His promotion to president came on the death of Richard Southam in 1937.

In his youth Mr. Lewis was prominent in athletics and played on the Riverside soccer team, one-time champions of Canada.

Labor Protest

VANCOUVER (CP)—Alex McAuslane, vice-president of the Canadian Congress of Labor, charged in address before the Vancouver Labor Council here Tuesday night that organized labor in Canada was being "ignored, spurned and scorned" by the federal government.

"P.C. 7440, pegging wages on the 1926-29 level, and P.C. 7307, practically forbidding strikes, sound the death knell of organized labor in Canada," he asserted. "If this isn't the same legislation as they have in Germany under Dr. Ley, someone will have to show me otherwise."

New Regulations

Badges for Men Unfit to Join Forces

OTTAWA (CP)—National Defence headquarters announces identifying badges will be issued to men who have been honorably discharged from the navy, army or air force after service in the present war and to those who have offered themselves for enlistment but have not been accepted.

The badges will be known as the War Service Badge, General Service Class and the Applicant for Enlistment Badge.

The War Service Badge will be issued for wearing with civilian clothes to all persons who have "honorably ceased to serve on active service in the naval, military or air forces of Canada, regardless of the length of service, and without restriction to the place of service," the department statement said.

VOLUNTARY OFFERS

The Applicant for Enlistment Badge will be issued also for wearing with civilian clothing and the following persons will be eligible to receive it: "Persons who have voluntarily declared their unqualified willingness to serve in and beyond Canada in the military forces of Canada, and who are refused enlistment by reason of their not possessing, due to no faults of their own, the necessary qualifications then required for enlistment in the naval, army and air forces of Canada."

The regulations set forth that every badge shall bear a serial number of identification, that they will be issued only to persons within the required enlistment age limits who have voluntarily made a sworn statement of their willingness to serve anywhere required.

Should they not have been accepted by the naval or air forces on account of not possessing the qualifications for enlistment, they will be required to present themselves in the army in order to be eligible.

CERTIFICATES

A certificate will accompany the issue of the badge and any person wearing it will be required at all times to be in a position to produce the certificate as proof of his right to do so.

The regulations say: "A volunteer who has made the aforementioned sworn declaration of his willingness to enlist, on the lowering of the medical standards for enlistment or for any other reason, shall present himself for enlistment on being so required by a competent military authority."

"If a volunteer fails to so present himself for enlistment within three days after being so required, he shall forfeit his badge and certificate, unless he can show due cause for delay."

Penalties are imposed not only for false representation or misstatement in obtaining the badges and certificates, but also for defacing or altering them or selling or otherwise disposing of them. Penalty for misuse of either badge is $500 or six months' imprisonment.

'SHOOTING WAR'

REAR-ADMIRAL YATES STIRLING, former chief of staff of the United States fleet, declared in Atlantic City the United States is already at war and "it is time to give President Roosevelt the green light to go ahead." He said in an address that "another brush with Nazi raiders" is all that is needed to bring the country into "a shooting war."

GOING TO BRITAIN

Six Republican members of Congress have accepted an invitation from the newspaper PM to go to Britain at the paper's expense to obtain first-hand information on war conditions.

They are: John W. Gwynne of Iowa, Joseph Clark Baldwin of W. Sterling Cole of New York, William S. Hill of Colorado and Richard P. Gale and Melvin J. Mass of Minnesota. They will fly by clipper.

NAVY ROMANCE

An international navy romance took form in Vallejo as the daughter of a U.S. rear-admiral announced her engagement to a lieutenant in the British navy.

MISS LUCIE VAN DER VEER FRIEDEL, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. W. L. Friedell, announced at a small house party her engagement to LIEUT. GEORGE OGILVIE of the Royal Navy.

Lieut. Ogilvie is an officer aboard H.M.S. Liverpool, British cruiser at Mare Island navy yard for repairs.

Admiral Friedell is commandant of the navy yard.

LEAVING R.C.M.P.

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER T. B. CAULKIN of the R.C.M.P. will go on leave of absence October 20 pending retirement on pension, it is announced in Ottawa.

Caulkin, director of training at headquarters in Ottawa and acting officer commanding "G" division, which comprises the Northwest Territories and the Yukon, joined the force April 18, 1907.

He has served in all parts of the Dominion, including such remote areas as Chesterfield Inlet down the Mackenzie River, at Akklavik and Herschel Island, and at Dawson, Y.T.

Assistant Commissioner and Mrs. Caulkin intend to move to Vancouver.

Gay Theatre Opening Held in Paris

PARIS, Occupied France (AP)—Plays by William Shakespeare and George Bernard Shaw were on view in Paris Theatre as the autumn theatrical season opened with crowded houses Tuesday. Of 25 legitimate theatres and eight musical comedy houses, only three remained dark.

Besides Shaw's "Canada" and Shakespeare's "As You Like It," 16 music halls, 5 cabarets, 2 circuses, 62 night clubs and 147 motion picture theatres were all busy.

This exceptional activity, even for Paris, was attributed to the limitation of expenditures in other directions by the rationing system and to the presence of German officers and parties of German soldiers on leave.

ARIAS HELD IN PANAMA JAIL

PANAMA (AP)—Dr. Arnulfo Arias, ousted President of Panama, is now in the city jail here.

Early today five vans filled with police met the special motor railway car in which Arias had journeyed to the capital from Cristobal, Canal Zone, where he had surrendered to Panama police from aboard the steamship Cefalu following the vessel's arrival from Cuba.

As the motorcade left the railway station, the ousted President stuck his head out of a window and shouted: "Viva Panama!" (Long live Panama!)

There was just a lone answer: "Viva Arnulfo," but who shouted it was not identified.

Earlier the new government, headed by Ricardo de La

Guardia, had announced it would permit Arias to take up exile in neighboring Costa Rica.

Whether a plan to allow him to leave for Costa Rica later would be adhered to was not immediately clear as the former President was whisked away to jail.

U.S. Tank Speed-up

WASHINGTON (AP)—Production of tanks increased substantially in September, the United States War Department reported today, with output of medium tanks nearly double that of August, and manufacture of light tanks also made a "good gain."

Actual numbers were not disclosed.

A business meeting of the Happy Valley Welfare group will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2.30. Sewing and wool will be distributed and quilting bees planned.

Border Agreement

TOKYO (AP)—Domei reported today from Hsinking that an agreement fixing the frontier between Manchukuo and Outer Mongolia had been signed by Japanese and Russian delegates, ending a border dispute which flared into open fighting at Nomonhan in 1939. The delegates, had been ironing out final details of the agreement since September 23.

Germans Claim Destroyer Sunk

BERLIN (AP)—The German high command claimed today a German submarine operating in the Strait of Gibraltar sank a British destroyer Tuesday. The destroyer was not identified. (British comment on this claim was not immediately available.)

That 'Diversion'

MR. CHURCHILL HAS BEEN URGED by a section of the British press and public to create a diversion somewhere on the continental coastline to relieve the pressure now being applied to Russia by the Nazi invaders. He has received similar advice from Canada and the United States; some "experts" thousands of miles from the war area have almost volunteered to provide the British Prime Minister with a strategic plan that could not fail. However, the man who presides at No. 10 Downing Street has not chosen to express himself on this subject; he is naturally guided by the judgments of men who are, after all, in charge of Great Britain's conduct of the war. Nor did Mr. Churchill permit himself to be drawn out in the House of Commons yesterday; he refused a discussion of aid-to-Russia for the simple reason that he thought such talk might be of assistance and comfort to the enemy. Nobody doubted Mr. Shinwell's burning desire to find a quick way to weaken the German offensive against the Soviet Union; but Mr. Churchill's assurance that the honorable Labor member had not "a monopoly of anxiety in these matters" was the soft answer calculated to turn away wrath. There the matter rested.

Several outstanding military experts, however, have not hesitated to say flatly that Britain is not yet in a position to initiate the kind of invasion of Continental Europe that would have the effect described by that section of press and public which is not in possession of information on which to base a reliable view of what should or could be done at this juncture. Mr. Hanson Baldwin, New York Times authority on naval and military matters, virtually pooh-poohs the idea of sending an expeditionary force to the continent this year. Hitler was to have his all-round superiority in men and materials in 1941; 1942 was to see the turning of the tide. The invasion of Russia, the success with which the German Wehrmacht obviously has met to date, has produced a new situation in which the gradual domination of much of the Soviet Union's territory and potential productive capacity is naturally being regarded with concern.

The point which Mr. Churchill and his advisers have to decide, however, is whether Russia can continue to defend herself—even though her armies may have to retire much farther behind the present battleline—until aid in sufficient volume reaches her from British Empire countries and the United States. Lord Beaverbrook and Mr. Averell Harriman have conducted their investigations on the spot. They were able to bring back all the information Great Britain and the United States required to enable London and Washington to formulate their long-term policies. Mr. Roosevelt said as recently as yesterday that he saw nothing in the latest developments on the eastern front that appeared to threaten his plan for continued and growing aid to Russia. In view of all the difficulties of staging the "diversion" which armchair critics continue to demand, therefore, it will be as well for all of us to temper our natural misgivings by a consideration of the fact that Hitler's new venture has not run "according to plan," that the colossal wastage in men and material must gradually slow up his program, and that so long as our gallant ally maintains the spirit of Leningrad and Odessa, the prospect which 1942 holds out for the German Wehrmacht will bring cold comfort to the Nazi chief and his high command. In any event, of course, Britain will not run the risk of another Norway or another Dakar.

German Papers Worried

SOME GERMAN NEWSPAPERS ARE betraying signs of uneasiness as the country begins to prepare for the war's third winter. A frank warning comes from Munich's Neueste Nachrichten, which says in part: "Germans must not be afraid if they have to bear still heavier sacrifices; they must be proud that probably every family will have the honor of sacrificing a member to win final victory." It all depends upon how the family regards this honor and how strongly it maintains its belief in the final victory.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung approaches the coming days in a somewhat different strain. It wants to know "who is there in Germany who does not realize that the historic battle in the wide plain of the east does not entail sacrifice?" Then this once excellent Berlin daily proceeds to suggest that perhaps the average German "notes here and there a certain compatibility between his own desires and the common need," and then: "Naturally the fate of individuals comes to the fore, but if the German is naturally subject to human emotions, he knows also how to fit them into the interests of the great and fateful demands of the community of which he is a part."

That once great Liberal newspaper, the Frankfurter Zeitung, obviously trying to be as realistic as its Goebbelsian direction will permit, surveys the present position of the German war machine in relation to all its obligations and frankly confesses the Nazis will have "no easy task in defeating Britain." It places emphasis on these salient conclusions:

"Obviously the greater part of the British and American people, including leading members of the church, approve the help given to Stalin in his fight against Hitler. At the beginning of the third year of war England and America are more than ever determined to bring about the downfall of National Socialism—and never has Churchill been more aggressive than after his meeting with Roosevelt. We openly agree that England has improved in some way her strategic position. We must ask, however, whether these British successes will help to win the war."

Germans and Germany's leaders, of course, can ask all the questions they like; they may be able to find satisfactory answers. But the Frankfurter Zeitung evidently is not satisfied with its own belief that nothing Britain does from now on will "bring a British victory," for its uncertainty would appear to be reflected by its final qualification: "If we succeed in the east we shall be faced with a new situation, and the outcome of this eastern war will decide whether it will be possible to begin a final offensive against Britain." What the newspaper does not introduce into its editorial musings is a speculation on what will be possible—or impossible—if Hitler loses in the east.

Fine Opposition Tribute

ONE OF THE FEW CONSERVATIVE newspapers in British Columbia which always knows its own mind, and makes no apologies for expressing itself clearly and unequivocally, is the Nelson Daily News. It is well edited and widely read. We mention these facts because in its issue of last Friday, October 10, it published under the heading of "Nelson Always Likes to Hear Him" the following leading editorial:

"Nelson always delights to welcome Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, who will speak here tonight. Nelson likes this able and good-humored Victorian with his Irish brogue and gift for pleasant and effective speaking."

"Some of us may think he permits his colleagues to spend too much money—especially in districts other than Kootenay—but we recognize the qualities he has shown as Finance Minister in the Brewster, Oliver and Pattullo governments."

"Critics of the huge and unfortunately still-increasing British Columbia governmental expenditures will admit that but for John Hart things might have been very much worse."

"His grasp of provincial finances, and of finance in the broader continental sense, is unquestionable. John Hart is an able man."

We believe all the fair-minded folk of British Columbia—irrespective of their party affiliations—will subscribe to the sentiments to which the Nelson Daily News has given expression in the foregoing. We are of the opinion, too, that many traditionalists of the opposition party will think more seriously on October 21 about Mr. Hart's performance in office than they will about promises lavishly made by those who are inexperienced and untried."

Another 'V' Movement

DOWN IN VENEZUELA A "V" MOVEMENT is going strong. Not the one which "Colonel Britton" is running in Europe. The one in the Latin American republic started back in 1938, and it is the Venezuelan equivalent of the widespread "4-H" Clubs for American farm youth. Instead of the familiar "Head, Heart, Hands, Health" that form a rallying point for rural youth in the north, Venezuelan youth have their "5-V" clubs. To them the Five Vs stand for Valor (courage), Vigor (vigor), Verdad (truth), Verguenza (modesty), and for their native Venezuela. In Puerto Rico, too, 7,200 are now enrolled in similar clubs, while Cuba too, has its "5-C" clubs; Cerebro (head), Corazon (heart), Co-operacion (co-operation), Civismo (civic spirit), and Cuba.

Thus it is pleasant to note that an American youth movement which has done so much for the free development of rural youth, is spreading among the Good Neighbors south of the Mexican border, and spreading not as an insidious penetration, but as a spontaneous and parallel development.

"Women's conversation," says a Canadian psychologist, "tends to worn subjects." And where worn and who wore them and the probable cost.

THE FIGURES GROW

From Vancouver Sun

The government of Australia has lately reckoned its total expenditures for the year ending June 30 next at $1,118,000,000. This is an enormous budget for a country of 7,000,000 people. It means that Australia will spend something like $160 for every man, woman and child in its population. The budget will entail severe sacrifice, a reduced standard of living.

Canada in the same period expects to spend about $2,500,000,000. This is at the rate of $233 per capita or $74 more per capita than Australia's expenditures. In other words, Canada for its population is spending half as much again as Australia. Great as Australia's war program is, Canada's is far greater.

This is not said to disparage the Australian program, nor do we forget that Australia in actual blood and casualties has suffered far more from the war than we have. It is said simply to provide a perspective on Canada's present plans which, for a nation of its size, are the largest, according to Mr. King, in history. It is said also to make Canadians realize again what sacrifices must be made, to carry out these commitments. In terms of money—which means in terms of work, saving and going-without—these commitments are gigantic, far greater than most Canadians have yet grasped.

OPTIMISTS

CANDIDATES IN THE provincial election continue to explain what they will do with our income and other taxes after the war. Since this displays a splendid confidence and deep optimism about the future, I am glad to see that it is shared by all parties. They all know what they are going to do with the income tax and our finances generally after the war. This is comforting indeed at a time when leading statesmen have no idea what they are going to do with the world.

By the time the war is over, at this rate of expenditure and debt, most people cannot imagine how we shall distribute our taxes or how we shall pay our bills three or four years from now. Should the war last that long—and it may well last much longer—I have the feeling that our financial structure and hence our means of dealing with it will bear hardly any resemblance at all to the present structure. I hardly think it worth while for the candidates in a provincial election in British Columbia to lay down fine blue prints now concerning the income and other taxes because our ideas are likely to change with our deeds.

Hitler will have more to say about the disposal of our taxes than any provincial legislature. He is the fellow who is spending out money for us now, not the legislature. So long as he is in circulation he will call the tune.

But one thing seems perfectly obvious—the national government of Canada, like the national government of the United States, which operates on our federal system, must have much greater powers after this war than it ever enjoyed before in peacetime. It may relax some of its present emergency powers, but it can never go back to the state of futility and impotence which it occupied in the last depression. Then it had neither the desire nor the power to deal with the depression. By the time it got the desire it found that it still lacked the power, and most of the measures put through by the Bennett administration were found to be ultra vires because of an incredible conflict with provincial powers.

Many of these reforms are still needed. The national government must advance much further in social legislation and if it does it must have more revenue than it used to have as well as many powers now retained by the provinces. Presumably all this will be worked out in a spirit of give and take, but anyone who lays down a plan now or says that we shall do this and so is too optimistic altogether for me. It may dispose of the election but the war will dispose of our affairs in a fashion which no candidate can foresee. I do not imagine the war or Hitler will consult the views of our legislature.

WASTE

IN A PERIOD when every bit of waste must be eliminated, it is scandalous to observe the use of electricity on a certain Object on Pandora Avenue. It is lighted up these nights like a surrealist Christmas tree. I calculate that enough power is wasted there every night to run a good-sized machine shop making shells for the army. My only fear is that when the black-outs start they will turn off the lights on the Object. It should be left lighted by all means. As a target.

PHEASANT DINNER

FURTHER NEWS has come from the boys' clubhouse down in the meadow and the crisis caused by the shortage of refreshments has been temporarily solved. Just after Mrs. Noggins had tricked the club members into eating an ancient egg of inferior flavor, and the club had gone back to a diet of potatoes baked in the ashes, a happy accident occurred. A large cock pheasant flew headlong into the wire fence nearby and died of a broken neck.

So I am able to report (trusting that the game authorities will not read it) that the pheasant fried in butter was enjoyed by all club members yesterday and was generally approved. "Just a little raw, is all," said the little boy from next door. "And you wrote in the paper that we had a picture of Hitler in the club that we used to spit at. Why Hitler was used up long ago. We've had Errol Flynn for the last two weeks. I hasten to make the correction."

HALLOWED BE OUR HARVEST HOME

"We Thy people and sheep of Thy pasture will give Thee thanks forever: We will show forth Thy praise to all generations."—Psalm 79.13

Hallowed be Thy courts with praise, Hallowed Lord the hymns we raise: Mindful of Thy tender care In a land of promise fair, Lo! again to Thee we come, Lending this, our Harvest Home.

Wondrous great Thy gifts in store, Fruitful fields from shore to shore, Treasure both of grain and gold Showered upon us seven-fold; Bounteous hills and vernal slopes, Fraught with health and joyous hopes.

Garnered these from Heaven above, In unending sheaves of love: Thankful may we ever be, Who at all times trust in Thee; And who, spite of flood and flame Still do glorify Thy name.

Bless our Harvest Home, today, Teach Thy children Lord to pray: In some quiet place apart, Fortify the lonely heart, Where angelic echoes ring, Praising Thee, our Bounteous King! MARY H. RATHOM. Thanksgiving Day, 1941.

WHERE CENSORSHIP IS VICIOUS

Nations cannot fight modern wars without censorship. Censorship is absolutely necessary to withhold from the enemy information which is useful to him in the conduct of the war. But where censorship is not only unjustified but positively injurious to the national interest is where it withholds from the public news of actions or policies which are themselves giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

In my opinion, the censorship which has applied for much of this year on the Pacific coast had nothing to do with the fighting of the war. It was to withhold from the public information the publication of which would have resulted in strong expressions of opposition to the government's policies.

That is, it was a political censorship, and not a censorship justified by military necessity.

Does any reasonable person really believe that seven members of the Greek steamer (censored) could have been taken from their ship and thrown into custody for five weeks without public trial or hearing of any kind in court, if there had been hearings in public or full publicity in the press?

These men suffered as they did because nobody knew about it till too late. Nobody knew that their only crime was that they refused to take war materials to their enemy and ours—and that they even volunteered to serve in the Canadian army or any place else they could help against Hitler.

CURRENT AFFAIRS

From the Spectator, London

The decision of the War Office to give instruction to the troops in "Current Affairs" is admirable—so admirable that no possible effort to make it a success should be omitted. There is no doubt a good deal to be said for the arrangement whereby the information is to be imparted by regimental officers. But is the average regimental officer really qualified for the task? I think in four cases out of five he would protest that he is not. It is quite true that he is to be briefed through bulletins issued by the War Office. But a talk from a brief is not the most inspiring thing in the world, and if, as should and apparently will be the case, there are to be questions and discussion, it is easy to see the regimental officer being badly flustered by questioners in the ranks. Is that good for prestige and discipline? The "outside expert" has many failings, but in many districts where troops are stationed civilians with wide knowledge of world affairs are available. It seems a pity not to rope them in. Perhaps that will be done in the end after some experience of the working of the other method.

THAT BAXTER ADDRESS

From Brantford Expositor

Many Canadians will feel that the Toronto Star was justified in rebuking Mr. Beverley Baxter, Canadian-born member of the British House of Commons, who has tendered some gratuitous advice on how to make our war effort. "Mr. Baxter," remarked the Star, "says he speaks as a Canadian, but he is, after all, a Canadian who has chosen to live elsewhere, and when he comes here and undertakes to tell Canada her duty, speaking as he admits he 'maybe shouldn't'—well we think that the 'maybe' might have been omitted."

By Burck

BAD EGGS FROM CANADA?

From Manchester Guardian

Even in the middle of another world war it seems permissible to pause, in an appropriate attitude of awe and admiration, before the statement that "it has now been established" that during the first eight weeks of the official egg scheme "probably 17,000,000 bad eggs were delivered to retailers." The returns show that of home-produced eggs only 2 per cent were bad and of imported eggs about 12 per cent, which does not sound quite so alarming. But when one leaves the slightly reassuring percentages and soars into the added and exulting millions the figure certainly seems on the formidable side. We know, of course, that you cannot make an omelet without breaking eggs—but just think of breaking 17,000,000 bad ones! Only Hitler's "new order" could yield a small that would be in any way comparable.

Better English

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "It makes no difference to me at all (or, in the least)." 2. What is the correct pronunciation of "clique" (small set of persons)? 3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Parallelogram, paralysis, parashute.

4. What does the word "rigid" mean?

5. What is a word beginning with ev that means "momentous"?

Answers
1. Say, "It makes no difference to me at all (or, in the least)." 2. Pronounce clique, ee as in see. 3. Parashute. 4. Inflexible; strict. "A rigid master." "Rigid discipline." "Rigid criticism." 5. Eventful.

C.C.F. Promises Aid to Humanity

C.C.F. candidates, Clare McAllister, W. B. Caird and H. O. Simpson of Victoria and Geoffrey LeGallais of Oak Bay, addressed a meeting at Oaklands School Tuesday night, under chairmanship of Miss Margaret Carr.

Mr. LeGallais recalled the old saying, "politics is the science of government." Liberals and Conservatives, he said, had brought the words into disrepute—instead of a science of government they had created a defiance of democracy. The Conservative platform, he said, was phantom planning for a phantom promised land.

Mr. Simpson said any serious-thinking elector would naturally vote C.C.F. There is no difference, he said, between Liberal and Conservative—both cater to money interests.

One class of the people in particular, the old-age pensioners, he said, is being shamefully dealt with. Civil servants are getting increases and cost-of-living bonuses and yet nothing is being done for the pensioners. If the C.C.F. were elected, he said, they would press for a revision of the act, increasing the pension and lowering the age limit. He pointed to the C.C.F. record of recent years—establishment of credit unions and institution of the weekly half-holiday in a week where a full holiday occurs.

'PANIC MEASURES'

Mrs. McAllister said "the strength of our movement is well illustrated by the panic measures of the other parties. The statement of Attorney-General Wismer that the C.C.F. was receiving funds from the Communist Party, she said, was too ridiculous for reply. Martin Neilson, C.C.F. candidate in Saanich, she said, had part of a speech for delivery over the local radio station deleted. The part merely said, Mrs. McAllister reported, that Canada maintains diplomatic relations with Vichy France and yet has no relations with Britain's ally, Soviet Russia. The C.C.F. program, she said, is concerned with the common people, not with the people who contribute to the campaign funds of the old-line parties.

She spoke of the milk and bread situation in Victoria, with their rising prices. A planned economy, she said, would see there was not such duplication in their delivery, as well as in their production. It was ridiculous, she said, that six or seven milk trucks should deliver on the one street every morning. Distribution of milk and bread should be rationalized, with subsequent saving to the consumer. The same applied to fuel, she said, noting the B.C. Electric was buying up all the wood for its steam plants, so electricity for domestic use could be turned out. There should be a central distribution for fuel was recommended by a special commission in the last war. A rationalization system of production and distribution would pay dividends in many ways, she said.

REACTIONARY

Mr. Caird said Canada had the most reactionary government in the British Commonwealth of Nations, indeed, in the whole democratic world. He blamed proximity to the United States for this, recalling how, at the time of the Ottawa agreements, big United States concerns moved their manufacturing plants into Canada. He said the Canadian government was much more amenable to the big U.S. manufacturers than the U.S. government, noting U.S. Treasury Secretary Morgenthau would limit profits in the U.S. to 6 per cent. On the other hand, the Canadian government was dominated by the big interests in the east. Canadian culture, he said, was much more American than English and this fact, coupled with the American financial interests, resulted in Canadian government reaction.

"The older parties are not concerned with the welfare of the people," he said. "Their welfare is only incidental. The old parties are concerned only with property. We of the C.C.F. are not concerned with property, except where property is essential to human needs. The C.C.F. is primarily concerned with humanity."

FEEL KEEN LOSS IN JURIST'S DEATH

Tributes to the late Chief Justice M. A. Macdonald opened the Victoria fall assizes in courthouse here Tuesday as Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson, presiding judge; J. B. Clearihue, K.C., crown prosecutor, and W. H. M. Haldane, on behalf of the junior bar, expressed their senses of loss.

"Were I at liberty to consider my personal feelings," said Mr. Justice Robertson, "I should at once adjourn the court as a mark of respect to his memory, but I have to consider the public interest and the further fact that a man is today to go on trial charged with a capital offence and it might be unfair to him to postpone the hearing. Further I am sure the late Chief Justice would have wished the court to proceed with its work."

"I have lost a friend whom I have known for many years. He was a judge of great ability. Only recently Sir Lyman Duff, the Chief Justice of Canada, in a judgment on appeal from the Court of Appeal of this province, referred to the late Chief Justice in these words: 'With the deepest respect for the learning and judgment of the able and experienced Chief Justice of British Columbia...'"

"It will thus be seen how great a loss the bench has sustained in his lamented death."

Mr. Clearihue associated himself with the expression of Mr. Justice Robertson, voiced his deep respect for the late Chief Justice and declared the bar felt the loss of a real friend and counsellor.

Mr. Haldane, speaking for the junior bar, echoed those sentiments, referring specifically to the late Chief Justice's kindness, particularly to the younger members of the profession.

Tells of Social and Economic Upheaval In Britain

A vivid picture of the social and economic upheaval occasioned in Great Britain by the war was painted for about 600 members of the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon by Miss Sheila MacDonald, sister of Rt. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald, British High Commissioner to Canada.

Declaring that Britain's labor situation was fully geared to an all-out war production high, Miss MacDonald noted that it was becoming increasingly difficult to find enough men to man the many wartime industries, with the result that women were being more and more absorbed into fields hitherto confined to male labor. Yet in Britain before the war, 4,000,000 women were already occupied in industry, so that their numbers today were enormous.

MIGRATION PROBLEMS

The speaker touched upon the many problems caused by the moving of industries from the urban centres, taking many women and girls from their homes, and putting a big strain upon rural resources in the way of housing, entertainment, etc. Such changes, in her opinion, would have a big effect upon the population set-up of Britain after the war, as many former city dwellers had now become enamored of life in the country.

Reference was also made to the work of the Women's Voluntary Service and similar organizations, all of which tended to break down class prejudices and develop a wonderful community spirit and national unity, she said. Miss MacDonald touched upon the difficulties occasioned by rationing, but saw in it a hopeful sign of a more intelligent interest in the task of home-making, "in which we were getting rather slack." Her comments on clothes rationing were amusing—"clergyman's surplises are invaluable for making frocks, because they are not rationed. Dusters, in lovely colors, also make beautiful blouses, they're not included in rations."

Mrs. F. G. Aldous, vice-president, introduced the speaker, and Mrs. H. P. Hodges moved the vote of thanks.

WOOL FOR BLANKETS

Prior to the address, Mrs. Aldous told the gathering of a proposed new war project of the club. Members were asked to bring in or send in donations of wool, in the form of old socks, blankets, tweeds, or any other material of pure wool. This will be sent to Calgary to be made into blankets to send overseas. The cost of making will be borne by the club, from the money saved by not sending a special delegate to the national convention of the Association of Canadian Clubs held recently.

Mrs. Alfred Carmichael, who attended the convention from the Regional Council, gave a brief resume of the deliberations and reports presented at the convention.

Mrs. G. A. B. Hall, a newcomer to Victoria, sang with much charm "Villanelle" (Dell Acqua) and "Life" (Pearl Curran). Mrs. C. C. Warn was the accompanist.

Mrs. Aldous announced that the speaker at the meeting on October 28 would be Mr. Alfred Wharton, his subject being "India's Place in the Sun."

The business meeting of the Victoria Women's Institute will be held Friday 2.15 p.m. at 635 Fort Street. Committee and conference reports. Members are asked to bring articles for rummage sale.

Wear Stockings Of Liquid Silk

Hundreds of fashionable young Victoria women are now using "Silktona" Liquid Silk Stockings, which gives the authentic appearance of sheerest silk. It is easy to apply, eliminates ladders, lasts all day and is not affected by water. Silktona is non-greasy and is easily removed with soap and water. Obtainable at all Cunningham Drug Stores—24 applications for 25c.

Social and Personal

Mrs. G. H. Kingham has returned from Prospect Lake and Nanaimo to her apartment at Seacroft, Oak Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bradshaw of Gordon Head have recently returned home from the east, where they have been visiting their son, 2nd Lieut. Gerald Bradshaw.

Mrs. Haycroft and Miss Alice Haycroft, who recently arrived from Crofton, V.I., and have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ismay, Lampson Street, are now settled in their new home at James Bay.

Mrs. James Adam and Mr. Joe Adam returned last night to their home in Vancouver after spending the Thanksgiving week-end with Mrs. Adam's son-in-law and daughter, Flying Officer and Mrs. George Maycock, Tudor Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Morrow, Los Angeles, who have been the guests of Capt. and Mrs. E. Roskelley, 2521 Cook Street, will leave Thursday for their home in California. They will be accompanied south by Mrs. E. Dunlop, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Johns, Yates Street.

Miss Kathleen Willard and Miss Lois Brain were joint hostesses at the latter's home on the Island Highway, Langford, Monday evening, to a number of young friends, to honor Miss Idella Malkin, who is shortly returning to her home in Saskatchewan. The rooms were gay with autumn flowers. The guest of honor was presented with a corsage bouquet of red, white and blue flowers. Parting gifts were concealed in a decorated drum and were presented by Kathie Willard. A pleasant evening was spent in games and music, followed by a buffet supper. Other invited guests were: Evelyn Smith, Betty Downes, Edna Young, Alice-Marie Rodgers, Mervyn Brown, Jack and Ritchie Le Quenne, Arthur and Eamon McTavish.

Mrs. James Adam, Vancouver, and Mrs. Harold L. Campbell presided at the tea table yesterday afternoon at the Empress Hotel, when a number of Women's Canadian Club members and guests remained for tea after the meeting. The special guests were Miss Sheila MacDonald, Mrs. G. A. B. Hall and Mrs. C. C. Warn. Others present were Mrs. T. A. Johnston, Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. C. L. Port, Mrs. H. M. Renwick, Port Arthur; Mrs. Darcus Hodder, Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Mrs. Raymond Kershaw, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Princeton, N.J.; Mrs. Harwood, Brandon, Man.; Mrs. Frank Paterson, Mrs. John Ewing, Mrs. H. P. Hodges, Mrs. D. R. McKenzie, Mrs. Caron Jameson, Mrs. W. M. Walker, Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, Mrs. S. J. Willis, Miss Agnew, Mrs. Henwood and Mrs. Miller, Brantford, Ont.; Mrs. C. B. McAllister, Vancouver; Mrs. A. Carmichael, Mrs. Charles Hislop, Mrs. H. M. Dumbarton, Mrs. C. M. Rendell and Mrs. LeNeveu.

Pte. David Slater, R.C.A.M.C., has returned to Esquimalt after spending two weeks' leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Slater, St. Patrick Street, New Westminster.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman C. Cook returned Tuesday to their home on Newport Avenue after spending a month's holiday hunting and fishing at Canim Lake. Accompanying them to the Cariboo were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Munro and Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Hunter, who returned about a week ago.

Miss Martha Rowan entertained this afternoon at her home on Linden Avenue at bridge, in honor of Miss Ann Critchley, guests later coming in for tea. Those invited were the Misses Honor Benson, Barbara Winslow, Terese Todd, Jean Lennox, Eleanor Heisterman and Mesdames E. T. Winslow, William Gooderham, J. A. Macdonell, F. F. Pease and J. H. Tullidge.

Miss Hilda Watson, bride-to-be of Mr. A. G. Clatworthy, was guest of honor when the Misses McPhail entertained last evening at their home on Forbes Street. The rooms were prettily arranged with Michaelmas daisies, chrysanthemums and dahlias. Upon their arrival the bride received a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses and her mother, Mrs. C. E. Watson, pink carnations. During the evening Rev. J. Mackie Niven, pastor of the Knox Presbyterian Church, presented Miss Watson with a handsome trillite on behalf of the various societies of the church and expressed their good wishes. Games were played and prizes were awarded the winners. A pastoral scene in miniature formed the centerpiece for the supper table, with milkmaids approaching the cows and calves which grazed on a strip of real pasture surrounded by a tiny fence. The invited guests included Rev. and Mrs. J. Mackie Niven, Mr. and Mrs. C. Coutts, Mr. and Mrs. L. Partington; Mesdames J. S. Patterson, C. E. Watson, H. Wiltshire, Kennedy, Campbell, C. Cooper, McCaig, Linn, D. Foubister, W. Harris, Jeffrey, Mitchell, H. Curtis; Misses Ella Wiltshire, Flo Kennedy, Vivian Dopp, Thelma Dopp, Peggy Linn, Mary McPhail, Cathie Foubister, Tena and Peggy McPhail and Mr. Dick Creech.

A miscellaneous shower for Mission Hospitals was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Walter Luney, 1566 Hampshire Road. The president of St. Mary's Senior W.A., Mrs. A. A. Bengough, assisted Mrs. Luney in receiving the guests. Mrs. Arthur Dixon poured tea and Mesdames F. D. McKechnie and R. C. Pattinson assisted with serving. The reception-rooms and dining table were beautifully decorated with fall flowers. Many useful gifts of linen and toilet articles were received, also $10.25 in cash. Among the guests present was Miss H. Horobin, from Japan, who is staying with Mrs. R. Wilfrid Hartley, 2985 Foul Bay Road.

Weddings

CHARPENTIER—POWELL

A nuptial mass wedding was solemnized on Saturday morning, October 12, at 9, at the Holy Family Church, Port Alberni, when Dorothy Anne, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Powell of Port Alberni and former pupil of St. Ann's Academy, Victoria, became the bride of Mr. Albert Joseph Charpentier, second son of Mr. Masimer Charpentier and the late Mrs. Charpentier of Ormeaux, Sask.

Variegated autumn blossoms provided an artistic floral setting at the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. J. A. LaBonte.

Full-skirted, with long princess lines, was the lovely bridal gown of white poplin brocade worn by the bride, over which fell the finger-tip-length chapel veil, cascading from a halo of orange blossoms. Her sleeves were long and pointed at the wrist and she carried a sheaf bouquet of orchid-toned gladioli and fern.

Mr. Powell gave his daughter in marriage and Miss Louise Powell was her sister's bridesmaid, gowned in sunset blue chiffon voile, designed with short puffed sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her quaint Juliet cap of harmonizing voile was appliqued with strands of miniature pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet surrounded by a lace frill. Mr. Ulysses Larouch supported the bridegroom as best man.

A reception breakfast was held at the Somass Hotel. Out-of-town guests included Mr. C. Charpentier of Saskatchewan, father of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Martin of Metehosin.

When Mr. and Mrs. Charpentier left on their wedding trip to Vancouver the bride wore for travel a blue boucle wool afternoon dress with fleece-lined topcoat in Gobiell blue, and a wide fox fur. Her Elizabethan mode hat was in garnet chiffon velvet, with accessories in harmonizing tone.

Mr. and Mrs. Charpentier will make their new home in Ormeaux, Saskatchewan.

REID—LEETHAM

A marriage of interest to Victorians took place in Truro, N.S., on September 30, when, at a ceremony performed in the vestry of the United Church by Rev. Mr. Mathews, Miss Iva Leetham of Victoria became the bride of Staff Sergeant Earl Reid. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. M. Leetham, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reid of Kisbey, Sask.

The bride wore a silver beige dress fashioned on princess lines, with hat and other accessories in burnt ginger shade. Her corsage bouquet was of Talisman roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bridges of Victoria were the attendants.

MOODIE—JOHNSTON

VANCOUVER (CP)—At a 4 o'clock wedding performed here today, Miss Florence Elena Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston of North Bay, Ont., became the bride of William Moodie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Moodie of Vancouver.

The groom's father is general superintendent of the British Columbia district of the Canadian National Railways and former northern Ontario superintendent with headquarters at North Bay.

Very Rev. Dean Cecil Swanson officiated at the ceremony in Christ Church Cathedral, for which the bride wore a traveling suit, a dressmaker ensemble in American wine with exactly matched accessories. Brown squirrel edged the coat and her corsage was of gardenias.

Miss Johnston's sister, Miss Norma Johnston, who came west with the bride for the wedding, was bridesmaid and wore a beige wool ensemble. Her hat was of self material with stitched brim, and she carried Talisman roses. Mr. Kenneth Douglas, Seattle, was groomsmen.

Small fee for admission.

Final Plans Made For Tea Dance

The tea dance to be held November 8 in the Empress Hotel, under the auspices of the Junior W.A. of St. Joseph's Hospital, promises to be novel entertainment for the pre-Christmas season. Final arrangements for the affair, which should especially attract the younger dancing crowd, were made Tuesday night at the home of Miss Gladwyn Beasley, St. Charles Street, general convenor.

Members of the committee who are working to make the party as successful an event as last year, are the Misses Patricia Walsh, Claudia Jesse, Mary Lou Bryant, Hilda Smith, Lillian Wood and Anna Byrom. A well-known orchestra will be in attendance from 4 to 6.30, and tea will be served to guests between dances, tables being arranged around the dance floor. Reservations may be made at the Empress Hotel, or by phoning Miss Beasley at E 3225.

Marvels in MUSKRAT

Yes, you will marvel at the beauty and style we are able to offer in these fashionable, long-wearing Coats—and at so modest a price. Just imagine! They have the new rounded shoulder line . . . the popular bishop's or straight bell sleeves . . . modish small collars . . . full swaggy bodies . . . gathered yoke or straight backs, as you prefer. In fact, they have just the 1942 features you would insist on in Coats costing twice as much. And in shades, too, there is a range to suit the fancy. Skillfully dyed to resemble mink, sable or kolinsky, these Coats are truly outstanding in fine appearance and real value.

St. Joseph's Alumnae's Style Show Is Success

War cannot dim milady's desire to be smart. This was proven at the Fall Fashion Show given by the St. Joseph's Alumnae Association in the Nurses' Home Tuesday afternoon and evening. Large audiences at both showings enthusiastically applauded the coats, hats and gowns as they were charmingly displayed by models walking down the centre aisle of the auditorium to an orchestral accompaniment, with tea tables arranged on either side. Artistic arrangements of fall blooms and shrubs decorated the lounge and stage.

Peplums, circular pleats and interesting details such as novelty buttons, large flap pockets and applique designs highlighted the tasteful display, classic black gowns still being favored. Coats, mostly of black worsteds, featured soft fur collars of silver and blond fox, mink, platinum wolf and brown and grey Russian squirrel, some models having the fur extending, waistcoat style, down the bodice to the waist. Especially smart was a fitted woolen coat with draped silver fox collar worn with a black velvet hat, with a silver fox tip on the crown. Most models had belts of self material which could be worn on or off. Several traveling coats of color checks were also shown.

HIGH HATS

The sky's the limit in millinery, many models having swooping forward flares or large butterfly bows or feathers of self material extending upward. Braid, fur and jersey trim were also shown. Most glamorous was a black model, the large brim of which was softly rolled back to reveal a facing of turquoise and brown feathers, its silk jersey snood falling to the waist. Snoods were popular, in a softer and fuller variety than previously seen.

Scarlet and aqua accents were featured with black afternoon dresses, striking gold and brilliant jewelry and sequin embroidery adding variety. There were colors, too, in lovely new shades, including Indian earth, Hudson green, Victory red and delicate tones of blue called Plantation, Queen's and New Zealand blue. A new note was gold and silver studs applied on sleeves and bodices of formal frocks called "riveting." Most skirts were full and casual and sleeves were three-quarter length, giving a "pushed-up" effect. One striking wool jersey frock combined a chateau bodice with a full brown skirt, accented by a studied paddy green belt in almost a dirndl style.

Colors came to life in evening gowns which were mostly the informal full-skirted fashion with short puff sleeves and fitted bodices, taffeta and crepe being materials favored. Particularly attractive was one of Bermuda rose taffeta with white floral pattern sprinkled with sequins and youthful shirred bodice, and an aqua taffeta model with diagonal inserts of velvet in the billowing skirt. Evening wraps featured the military note, with regimental collars and double-breasted bodices in woolen models, several attractive varieties of housecoats were shown, quilted silk and velvet corduroy being popular fabrics.

BRIDAL PARTY HIGHLIGHT
Prolonged applause greeted the charming bridal party which was the final display of the show. The matron of honor walked in first wearing a tailored velvet gown of deep claret shade, with matching accessories and colonial bouquet of wine asters, followed by two bridesmaids in identical gowns of aqua and rose taffeta, their full skirts sweeping the ground and horizontal tucking featuring the bodices. Completing their ensembles were tiny pancake hats in matching shades and bouquets of chrysanthemums. The bride's lovely gown combined white taffeta, satin and net, the full skirt being appliqued with satin flowers, and the bodice of starlight taffeta having leg-of-mutton sleeves. A fine net veil fell from a halo headdress to her waist, and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Models for the show were Mesdames S. F. McKay, R. Hibberd, P. H. Brown, W. Findlay, J. E. Moore, W. Keck, R. W. Sinclair, I. McCallum, E. Earle and the Misses Anna Byrom, Jessie Eaton and Mrs. Partridge. Commenting on each costume over a microphone was Miss Peace Cornwall.

Gowns were supplied by Lyle's Dress Shop, shoes by Maynard's Shoe Store, housecoats by Mae Meighan, hats by Minnie Beveridge, bags by McMartin's Leather-Goods, shrubs and plants by Ballantyne's, bridal bouquets by Brown's Nurseries, jewelry by Rose Ltd., and tea by Malkin's Limited.

Clubwomen's News

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Rainbow Sea Cadets will hold a Trafalgar Day silver tea and bridge party at Prince Robert House Tuesday afternoon, October 21. The proceeds will be devoted to work among the Sea Cadets. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Nobbs, E3680, or Mrs. Spaven, G7618.

Rev. H. N. Konkle, general secretary of the Mission to Lepers, will give an illustrated lecture under the auspices of St. John's Senior W.A. Thursday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, Mason Street. All are welcome. Silver collection.

The Servinus Group of Metropolitan Church met recently at the home of Mrs. G. Murphy, Carboro Bay Road, the president, Mrs. J. O. Welch, presiding. Mrs. T. Hammond had charge of the devotional period. Plans were discussed regarding the fall fair in November. Mrs. Bertha Parsons, president of the W.A., spoke on the importance of women's work in the church, especially during these critical times. Mrs. Wardley Smith gave an interesting talk on Finland, where she has spent considerable time. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ruffell, 1026 Monterey Avenue, on November 14.

Christ Church Cathedral Parish Guild and Sewing Circle met recently, with Mr. G. H. Bissell presiding. Dean Elliott opened the proceedings with prayer. Correspondence included a letter from the A.Y.P.A., asking the assistance of the guild in entertaining men of the forces at informal social gatherings after Sunday evensong. The Sewing Circle reported a useful sum as the result of the rummage sale, which is being used entirely for materials for overseas. Large quantities of garments and knitted blankets continue to flow through this channel to the bombed-out people of Britain and the seamen of the minesweepers and trawlers, whose need will be great during the next few months. Major Longstaff has offered to show some interesting lantern slides at the next meeting, concerning work of the navy. During November it is hoped to hold a guest tea with Dr. Henrietta Miller as speaker. Miss Lettice reported on the sick visiting, and a vote of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Finmore, who is ill in hospital.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

All senior clubs will meet as usual this week at the Y.W.C.A. with the gymnasium classes preceding club meetings from 7 to 8 Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Mrs. Reading and Miss Reading, just returned from England where they have been doing British Red Cross work, will speak informally to the girls of the Versatile Club Thursday evening. Mary Pinches is the newly-elected president of this club, and Olive Jordan has been chosen president of the Y-Owenca Club.

Efforts are being concentrated on the Country Fair to be held by the senior clubs Thursday, November 6, at the Y.W.C.A., in aid of the British "Y" War Work Fund. The evening's entertainment promises to offer fun and plenty of variety to all who attend and will include dancing, games, novelty sales, tea and refreshments. Further details will be announced later.

The leadership training series, convened by Mrs. Richard Felton of the girls' work committee, begins Wednesday, October 22 at 8, when a practical series of training for leaders and workers of young people will be offered. Application may be made by phoning the Y.W.C.A.

Reynolds Jr., Mrs. J. Ogilvie, Mrs. G. A. Kinnes (Vancouver), and Mrs. A. Kinnes.

Dance Music Wanted At Hostess House

An appeal for sheet music to which the men of the three forces can dance is being made by the Hostess House, Fort Street. The dances at this popular rendezvous draw hundreds of the men and their friends and the supply of "jazz" is getting much the worse for wear.

Anyone having copies of modern dance music for which they have no further use is kindly requested to leave it at the Hostess House, where it will be much appreciated.

Engagements

CAMPBELL-MITCHEL

The engagement is announced of June Mitchell, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Mitchell of Burbank, California, to Gnr. John A. Campbell, 56th R.C.A., only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campbell of Vancouver. The wedding will take place in Vancouver late in December.

Even the Humble Baked Apple May Be Dressed Up

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
Even the humble baked apple can take on a dinner dress and march in after the evening meal. And those dried figs you see in the market can appear in the form of a regal dish of spiced figs. The more fruit in the menu the better, and these two simple desserts will be welcome additions to your recipes.

Baked Stuffed Apples
(Serves 4)
Four large apples, 8 pitted dates, 1/2 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water.

Wash and core apples. Cut a thin slice from the top. Fill cores with dates and nuts. Add water to the pan and cook, covered, in hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Uncover. Sprinkle generously with sugar. Bake uncovered until tender. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream or soft custard.

Royal Spiced Figs
(1 1/2 pints)

Fifteen dried figs, 30 whole cloves, 1 cup purple grapejuice, 1 cup apple cider, 1 cup granulated sugar, 2 1/2-inch sticks cinnamon, 1 teaspoon allspice.

Cover figs with water and boil five minutes. Drain, and stick two cloves in each fig. Combine grapejuice, cider, sugar and water and spices. Boil five minutes. Add figs. Cover. Boil 30 minutes. Chill. Serve in large glass dish. Pass a bowl of chilled soft custard.

Cranberry Ladyfinger Dessert
(Serves 4 to 6)

One cup cranberries, 1/2 cup honey, 1 cup raisins, 1/2 pint cream, whipped ladyfingers.

Put cranberries through food chopper and combine with honey. Stand over night. Drain liquid from mixture. Add raisins which have been rinsed in scalding water drained and cooled. Whip cream. Add the fruit. Split ladyfingers in half. Line sherbet glasses with ladyfingers and fill with mixture. Chill well.

TOMORROW'S MENU

Breakfast: Grapefruit and pineapple juice, cooked cereal, toast, coffee, milk.

Luncheon: Tomato juice, toasted cheese sandwiches, baked stuffed apples, custard, tea, milk.

Dinner: Baked slice of ham, baked sweet potatoes, brussels sprouts, royal spiced figs, cream, coffee, milk.

Chapter Votes $100 To Hostel Scheme

Members of the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter I.O.D.E., at their meeting last night at headquarters voted $100 to a proposed hostel scheme, in connection with war services.

A letter of acknowledgment for a gift of $50 was received from the Lord Mayor's Air Raid Distress Fund in London. This money will be used to supply milk to children in bombed areas. The chapter will continue to supply milk to children in the local schools throughout the winter.

Knitted goods valued at $57.30 were received and members were reminded to take their donations of leather and fur to the workrooms, Langley Street, where the windbreakers are being made. Mrs. P. E. Corby gave a report of the semiannual meeting at Salt Spring Island, Mrs. William Ellis will be hostess at a party at her home, 3023 Beach Drive, on October 30, for members and their friends.

NANAIMO FUNERAL

Funeral services were held Monday at Nanaimo for Joseph Phydine Morin, 76-year-old Nanaimo pioneer who claimed he could trace his ancestry to a family which came to Canada with the French explorer Jacques Cartier. He died Friday. Mr. Morin pioneered in the Michigan pine country before coming west to Victoria. He took part in the Yukon gold rush of '98 and returned to Vancouver Island in 1911. He was once well-known as an athlete, excelling in swimming and boxing here. Surviving are his widow and four sons.

FAST ACTION HELPS PREVENT MANY COLDS

At the first sign of a cold, put a few drops of Va-tro-nol up each nostril. Its stimulating action aids Nature's defenses against colds.

And remember—when a head cold makes you suffer, or transient congestion "fills up" nose, spoils sleep, 3-purpose Va-tro-nol gives valuable help as it (1) shrinks swollen membranes, (2) relieves irritation, (3) helps flush out nasal passages, clearing clogging mucus. Enjoy the relief it brings.

Samuel Drake of Of Nanaimo Dies

NANAIMO (CP)—Samuel Drake, 51, pioneer Nanaimo resident and prominent public figure here, died yesterday after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Drake was member of Nanaimo City Council from 1930 to 1939 inclusive, and he represented the city council on the hospital board.

Mr. Drake had belonged to the Masonic Order for more than a quarter of a century as a member of Ashlar Lodge, No. 3, A.F. and A.M. During that time he was past master of the lodge, past first grand principal of the Royal Arch Masons of British Columbia and a member of Bethlehem Precinctory, K.T.

Born in Nanaimo, Mr. Drake served with the Royal Air Force during the first Great War. Besides his widow, he leaves two daughters, Dorothy and Thelma, a brother, Frank, and six sisters, all of Nanaimo.

Girl Beat Records

BIRMINGHAM, England (CP)—Considered too frail two years ago to operate a lathe in a munitions factory, 19-year-old Evelyn Duncan is credited with a world's record for having turned out 6,130 anti-aircraft shell components in a six-day work week.

London's Health

LONDON (CP)—War conditions have little effect on the health of the children of Great Britain. In the first week of the second year of the war there were no deaths in the whole London area from measles, diphtheria or scarlet fever and only two from whooping cough. Equally good reports came from other large cities.

Store Windows For War Savings

As an aid to the Victoria War Savings Committee's drive for two tanks a month, Spencer's and Hudson's Bay stores will feature windows dealing with war saving.

Spencer's will have a window devoted to a photographic series showing how war savings stamps and certificates are produced. Hudson's Bay will feature a window showing the war savings and other war efforts of the school-children of the province.

Both windows will be completed Thursday.

The tank facsimile, which arrived in the city from Vancouver two weeks ago to epitomize the object of Victoria's campaign, will make its first appearance in Saturday's war savings parade.

Hostesses to Men

Convened by Mrs. S. S. Pearce of the Air Force Auxiliary, a tea was held at the Y.W.C.A. Sunday afternoon, when the men of the forces were guests for supper and a musical program arranged by Mrs. H. C. MacCallum. Those taking part were: Miss Ann Lister, Miss Audrey Mills, Mrs. Downes, Miss Peggy Walton, Mr. W. Demers, Miss Rita Nevard and L. Partington.

The girls of the Enterprise Club assisted the women. Dances for the forces are held at the Shrine Hall on the first and third Monday evenings of each month, the next one taking place on October 20.

Dr. E. W. Boak was chosen president of the Victoria Medical Association at the annual general meeting. Others elected: Dr. R. B. Robertson, vice-president; Dr. L. W. Bassett, secretary, and Dr. P. A. C. Cousland, treasurer.

Esquimalt Relief Up 10 Per Cent

A motion, asking for an increase of 10 per cent in relief allowances, was passed without dissension at a meeting of the Esquimalt council Tuesday night. Councillors agreed that this was only fair, due to the rapidly increasing cost of living.

Miss Margaret Clay of the Victoria Public Library attended the meeting with Percy Richards and gave details of the agreement under which Esquimalt could again be extended the services of the library. The municipality dropped the library service in 1931.

She explained that the average cost per book was at present just under 10 cents, and that the city of Victoria bore all the expense for the lending of books to men in the services.

The matter will be fully discussed at the next meeting of the council. A committee was formed to ask the B.C. Electric for a speed-up in the Esquimalt street car service and added bus facilities to take care of passengers at rush hours.

A request from the Esquimalt Community Club asking the co-operation of the municipality in the laying of wreaths at the Esquimalt Park Memorial November 11 was referred to Reeve Alex Lockley.

A tender from G. L. Anders offering to purchase three lots on Grenville Street for $150 was not accepted, and he will be informed that he could have them for $165.

A parade will be held at 7.30 tonight at Cridge Memorial Hall. Lady Burden, O.B.E., will be guest speaker.

Conservatives

Action Sought On Race Problem

In the last week of the election campaign the Victoria Conservative team, Major J. D. Hunter, Alderman D. D. McTavish and Waldo Skillings occupied the rostrum at South Park School Tuesday night, outlining their plans of action if elected a week hence.

Reading first from a resume of the election situation which appeared in a national magazine, Mr. Skillings reiterated his challenge to his opponents. Saying that war may come to the Pacific, he urged the voters to choose leaders "who will think for themselves, who will attack problems, regardless of their size."

Mr. Skillings considered briefly racial problems on the Pacific coast. He said that, while these were matters which came under the jurisdiction of the federal government, he thought consideration by the provincial government would be of value in priming the Dominion to action.

"British Columbia has an Oriental problem," he said. "There is one Oriental for every 13 white persons, and the ratio is rapidly increasing. I don't, however, say we should cut off immigration immediately."

He quoted figures from a recent report on the situation. Forty years ago there were 2,000 Japanese in the whole of the Dominion, 97 per cent being in B.C. Today there are 23,000 Japanese, and the number is increasing rapidly. He gave a breakdown of the figures for the various industries in which Japanese are employed.

"We white people cannot compete against the Japanese, because of our standard of living," Mr. Skillings said. "What will it be like after the war? We cannot deport them, but we can limit their activity by licensing."

He said the situation was one that needed immediate action, for Japan is aligned with the Axis powers, and if Russia is defeated Japan would be "waiting the opportunity to perhaps knife us in the back."

He concluded his remarks by urging the public to take time to think when they go to the polls next week. The greatest weapon against democracy is our apathy, he said.

MAJOR HUNTER

Major Hunter presented, in part, the same address he gave at Sir James Douglas School last week. He condemned the Patullo government for calling an election at this time when the money was needed for the war. The cost of the election would be $250,000, he estimated. He said the Conservatives were quite willing to form a nonpartisan government, and showed their seriousness by refusing to contest two by-elections.

Condemning the government for its financial policy, Major Hunter said: "There is no sacrifice here so far as this province is concerned."

Major Hunter said that he would favor a plan to reduce the number of provincial governments from nine to five. In his proposed rearrangement of provincial authority, British Columbia, the three prairie provinces, Ontario, Quebec and the three Maritime provinces, would each have a provincial government.

ALDERMAN MCTAVISH

"I'm a native son. All my interest is centred here," said Alderman McTavish, as he asked for support at the polls next Tuesday.

He devoted a considerable portion of his address to reforestation problems. With only about 2,600 acres replanted on the island, Alderman McTavish said reforestation should be taken up vigorously and without delay. He advocated the preservation of some of the fine stands of timber in the upper part of the island, mentioning specifically the Cathedral Grove stand near Cameron Lake.

Cadets Entertained

Twenty-eight cadets from the Gordon Head Camp were entertained Sunday by members of the Canadian Auxiliary Territorial Service (Victoria Ambulance Corps) at the home of Mrs. M. L. Renwick, Gorge Road West. After a short drive, a hot supper was served buffet style. The cadets were driven back to camp following an evening's entertainment of songs and games.

INSTALLMENT BUYING

Is it not very strange that Mr. Hsley is not forbidding buying money on the installment plan through banks and loan companies.

NOT ETHEL SEYMOUR

According to various persons who have stopped me on the street during the past few days, I am being credited with an article or letter written by Ethel Seymour, attacking Clarence Streit's book, "Union Now."

I wish to state that I am not the author of the above-mentioned article or letter. I do not possess the name "Ethel." I am not acquainted with the lady in question, and, incidentally, I am in hearty agreement with the greater part of Mr. Clarence Streit's work.

SLICING BREAD

It has come to our attention that certain bakers in parts of Canada have been installing slicing machines in restaurants to circumvent the ruling of selling sliced bread. This unfair trade practice is not helping Canada's war effort. Canada's machine industry has no time to be building slicing machines now. We would like to suggest that a possible alternative to prohibiting the sale of sliced breads would be to allow sliced breads to be sold at a higher price than unsliced breads.

D. L. WALKER.

STILL DEMOCRACY WORKS

If the letter in your columns of September 15 by Laura Parsons is a sample of democracy in action, then I fear humanity will be compelled to throw up its hands in absolute despair.

When human beings, supposedly possessing some intelligence, will state that "the sooner science is relegated to its proper place or sphere, i.e., that of a useful or respected servant, and the sooner it ceases to form our cultural values, the sooner the human race will get on with its job of the higher evolution which awaits it." That such a statement is well outside the bounds of common sense and reason is very evident, especially when one has read the facts as given by Joseph McCabe in his "The Golden Ages of History." He says: "A few years ago a distinguished economist drew general attention by declaring to an academic audience that the time had come for science to turn aside from its electrons and protons, its galaxies and its amino-acids, and concentrate upon the diseases of collective life—wars, poverty, depressions, the mental vitality and character of the average man," and so on. To my knowledge this scientific gentleman was asked some months later what prevented him and his colleagues from giving their attention to the large and palpitating human interests, and he replied that he and a number of other scientific men had met for the purpose, but the cabinet minister to whom they submitted a draft of their provisional findings "told them to put it in the wastepaper basket, it had no chance of even being considered."

According to Laura Parsons' viewpoint, the government minister acted correctly and justly with scientists and their findings. But common sense and reason balk at such a conclusion, which is thoroughly supported and endorsed by Mr. McCabe's comment on his quotation, when he says: "Our misfortune is not that the intellect of man has outstripped his other faculties" — whatever that man mean—"but that this higher development of intellect of the race, and that we then direct these men of specially-trained minds and exact habits of thought to restrict themselves to providing us with cheaper stockings, aspirins, motor cars or aluminum saucepans and leave what we call the graver problems of life to political adventurers, preachers, educational mandarins or literary men like Beverly Nichols or Sir Philip Gibbs."

Strike Ended

DETROIT (AP) — R. J. Thomas, president of the United Automotive Workers (C.I.O.), said today the union had called off a strike at the Hillside Steel Products Company's plant at the request of the defence mediation board. The action ends a dispute which tied up an estimated 70 per cent of United States army tank production.

The U.A.W. chief said there would be further negotiations with the mediation board in Washington. Efforts to settle the dispute in Hillsdale struck a snag Monday night.

Production of tank transmissions by the Spicer Manufacturing Company of Toledo, O., has been halted for two days by the dispute. The Hillsdale firm, a subsidiary of the Spicer Company, manufactures parts used in the transmission assembly.

City police reported today win dows in June Brothers Ltd., 570 Johnson Street, Slingers Wineries and Weston's Pharmacy, Gladstone Avenue and Fernwood Road, were broken Tuesday night.

RUSSIAN PLANES SENT TO TABRIZ

TEHERAN, Iran (AP) — Eighty Russian bombers and fighters based at Kazvin for the Soviet army of occupation were transferred today to Tabriz, in northwestern Iran, 250 miles nearer the Caucasus.

British military sources said they were not informed as to whether the Russians were abandoning construction of a big air base at Kazvin. It was reported that 38 single-seat fighters are still maintained by the Russians at the Caspian port of Pahlevi, 80 miles from Soviet territory.

The four squadrons of bombers and fighters sent to Tabriz will be within 60 miles of Russian territory for use in the event the Germans should extend their gains toward that oil-rich territory.

Under agreement with the Iranian government, the Russian and British occupation troops are due to leave Teheran in a few days.

Growing rural lawlessness reached a climax today when Iranian army deserters robbed three buses and two trucks carrying Moslem pilgrims from Teheran.

Tribal brigands also were reported to have made two unsuccessful attacks on British army trucks near Kermanshah.

By PETE SALLAWAY

LACKADAISICAL performance. Those two words tell the story of the exhibition turned in by Vancouver Burrards box lacrosse team in the game between the James Bay squad here over the week-end. We are not trying to take anything away from the Bays. They marked up a smart victory and played some mighty fine lacrosse to turn the trick. But we can't stretch our imagination to the point where we can believe the Bays are eight goals better than the mainland club.

Granting that the Burrards were at the disadvantage on the small floor and squawked about the lighting and refereeing, it must be remembered they were the club that reached the final of the mainland league against Richmond. And Richmond stands all even with St. Catharines in the current Canadian final. It just doesn't add up.

Burrards appeared to adopt the same attitude as so many other visiting teams in an exhibition game. They played just hard enough to make a game of it. There was nothing at stake and the play of the Burrards certainly showed it. We took special notice of Walt Lee's actions in goal. This goalie is recognized as one of the finest in the senior circuit. Over here he made the feeblest of attempts to block shots. If one beat him he laughed. He didn't have a worry in the world and he certainly was not going to work any overtime in his efforts to keep the ball out of the net.

There is only one way to play these exhibition games. Give the visiting club a limited guarantee and then make a pot on a winner-take-all basis. Then you will see a marked difference. There will be none of this devil-may-care attitude. All these clubs like to get in on any payoff and the result would be a much more interesting performance for the customers.

On the other side of the picture we must pay tribute to the fine play of Arnold Ferguson of the Bays. This lad certainly proved his right to be classed as one of the finest players to perform in the local league. His stick-handling, goal-scoring and all-around floor play against the Burrards placed him in a class by himself. And Ferguson's play acted as a spark to set off the other members of the club.

Any amateur fight manager has a good prospect in Ritchie Nicol, elongated defenceman of the Bays. We have watched Nicol play boxla, baseball and basketball but think he has missed his calling in not-donning the padded gloves. That pass he made at Jack Pugsley was really a honey. He flattened the visiting player's nose to the extent that he really could be classed "Pug."

Ted Menzies, that excitable manager of the Bays, kind of talked out of turn the other day with the result it will cost him two 25 cent "cigars." Members of our sports department were discussing the Canadian final between Richmond and St. Catharines. "Richmond will not win a game," declared Menzies. Result—Mr. Menzies pays off without a quibble.

Will be interesting to see how Torchy and Doug Peden fare in the Montreal six-day bike race. Doug has been away from his bike for months, having played baseball with the touring House of David club all summer, while Torchy has been doing little serious riding, since joining the C.C.M. in Toronto. However, both boys are in good condition and it should be a matter of ironing out a few kinks, and we figure them to be up near the top at the finish, barring accidents.

Lindsay Gets Draw

Of Opinion He Won

SEATTLE (CP)—Kenny Lindsay, bantamweight battler from Vancouver, was credited with a draw with little Black Joe of Manila in a 10-round bout here last night when Kenny said later that "I thought I had won."

Lindsay claimed Joe struck him low no less than six times. Kenny, who usually fights at 118 pounds, was three and a quarter pounds over that weight as he didn't want to come in too light for the hard-charging Joe. He said, however, that the extra poundage cost him speed and precision, slowing him up and throwing off his timing. He was missing repeatedly in the latter rounds.

The Manila was a shade better in the first round with harder punches. The second and third were full of action with both fighters about even.

PUTS JOE DOWN

Lindsay began to earn a margin in points in the fourth when he half pushed and half hit Joe into a sitting position on the ropes for two counts.

The Vancouver boy also took the fifth but from there on began to slow up, losing the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth by close margins.

Lindsay apparently earned the draw in the final round, fighting back more strongly and taking the round by a shade.

In the other half of the double attraction Harry (Kid) Matthews of Seattle slashed his way to a technical knockout over Danny Gill of Los Angeles in two minutes of the second round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

The referee stopped the bout after Gill got up from a two-count knockdown and tried to ward off an avalanche of rights. The Californian was groggy as Matthews drove in to finish his assault.

Arena Equipment Arrives

Last few days have seen the arrival of the ice equipment for installation in the new arena at the Willows. Above picture shows the unloading of a section of the carload of pipe to be laid on the surface of the new rink. All day Monday the welders were busy getting the 40-foot lengths and joints together. Two big compressors were due in today while the motors will reach the city within a short time. Installation of the equipment is under the supervision of R. Sargent, refrigeration engineer from Montreal.

Crucial Boxla Clash

No Referee Change

VANCOUVER (CP)—The lacrosse faithful hedged their bets on the outcome of the Dominion lacrosse finals today as they waited for tonight's game to give some indication of which team has the most power.

St. Catharines Athletics, eastern Canadian lacrosse champions, and Richmond Farmers, British Columbia titleholders, each hold a game a piece in their best-of-five series for the Mann Cup. St. Catharines won the first game 10 to 9 and Richmond the second 10 to 10.

Both teams are primed and set for the fixture, which will be played in Vancouver's Forum. Referees for tonight's game will remain the same, despite verbal objections from Coach Art Brown of the Kilties, who has complained of faulty interpretation of playing rules on the part of officials. Jimmy Gunn and Harry Gilmore.

Coach Brown said in an interview that he had asked the Canadian Lacrosse Association for a referee change, but the request was ruled out.

CHARGES FAVORITISM

"I will admit that my boys deserved some of the penalties issued to them Monday night," Brown said. "However, Richmond also violated several rules, but in a different manner—and they got away with it."

James McConaghy, C.L.A. president, said he had received a "mild protest" from the St. Catharines team, but that there "was not enough substance to it to warrant any change."

Recalling the 1940 Mann Cup playoffs in Toronto, Brown charged that "when Vancouver Burrards came east last year they objected to the refereeing after the first game and were granted a change and two officials were imported from Montreal to handle the proceedings."

Brown's only prediction on tonight's game was that "I will use the same line-up again and my boys will be out there playing to win."

SKATING CLUB

Officials of the Victoria Figure Skating Club announced Tuesday they still have a few vacancies for senior members. Those wishing to join are asked to communicate with the secretary at 1006 Douglas Street or by phoning E 3342. When the new arena opens the club will go in for the promotion of figure skating in the city with a membership of around 150.

BOXLA PRACTICE

Oaklands Midgets will hold a lacrosse workout at the Sports Centre tonight at 6.30. All players are asked to attend as the club is scheduled to play on the mainland, Friday, in the provincial championship.

Wins Tame Bout

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chalky Wright, world featherweight titleholder in New York and Maryland, earned a top-heavy decision over Leo Rodak, Chicago lightweight, in a listless 10-round bout Tuesday night.

Wright, tough little Los Angeles negro, had the fight in hand from the second round on. Rodak, hurt by one of Wright's uppercuts in the second, back-pedalled most of the route and managed to tie Wright up in a clinch whenever the negro tried to send home a knock-down wallop.

Grizzlies Hope For Dry Field

VANCOUVER (CP)—Greg Kabat and his Vancouver Grizzly football squad—along with many a Vancouver football fan—hoped for a dry field for tonight's final test of coast football strength against Winnipeg Blue Bombers who punted the Grizzlies 17 to 0 here Monday.

Many football experts believe Grizzlies—new to the Western Interprovincial Football Union this year—might make a better showing against the powerful Bombers if the weatherman would co-operate. The Vancouver squad has played in the rain in every home game so far this year, one of which they won by a 7 to 6 score against Regina Roughriders in their only victory of the season.

Skies today indicated that the weather might clear for the second Grizzly-Bomber clash. No predictions came from either football camp. Kabat, the ex-Winnipeg star who came west this year to coach the Grizzly squad, was noncommittal about Grizzlies chances in the second contest.

It was expected the teams would field almost the identical line-ups as in Monday's game when Bombers flashed some of the best football ever seen on this coast, going over and through the Grizzly team almost at will for the victory. That put them in a tie with Regina Roughriders in the W.I.F.U. standings.

A combination of too much Fritz Hanson, too much Art Stevenson and too many fumbles on their own part, beat the Grizzlies Monday.

Muddy Ruel Signs New Sox Contract

CHICAGO (AP)—Harold (Muddy) Ruel, St. Louis barrister whose highly profitable sideline is baseball, signed a new three-year contract today as coach with Chicago White Sox.

Terms of the agreement were not divulged, but a conservative estimate of his 1942 salary would be $10,000.

Ruel, one time catcher for Walter Johnson, has received praise for the past few years for his work with White Sox pitchers. Moundsmen rejuvenated by Ruel's magic touch include Thornton Lee, who won 22 games this season; Ed Smith, Johnny Humphries, who pitched three straight shutouts late this season, and Buck Ross, all obtained in baseball's bargain basements.

SHORES GO INTO FOOTBALL LEAD

VANCOUVER (CP)—North Shore United Monday took over possession of first place in the Coast Soccer League standings, defeating Radials 4 to 2 to register their second straight win of the season.

North Shore had the best of play in the first half, but after the interval Radials were definitely on top, and missed two opportunities of dividing the points.

Pitches Four Straight Nights

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—Page Satchell Paige—Mike Berry pitched and won four games on successive nights for the California Eagles ball club of Oakland last week. During the day he works in the shipyards . . . Reservations for the American Bowling Congress tournament at Columbus, O., had reached 3,780 up to the middle of last week . . .

Ebbie Goodfellow, whose idea of tact in a hockey game was to skate up to an opposing player and knock him flat, is serving as Detroit Red Wings diplomatic representative in Windsor, Ont., smoothing the way for the boys to cross the border.

Dan Topping has hired Glenn Miller's orchestra to play between the halves of the Dodgers-Cardinals pro football game Sunday. With Mrs. Topping (Sonja Heinie) as a regular sideline attraction, all Dan has to do now is borrow the four bruisers from Sonja's ice show and then inflict them on the opposition. . . . When Mickey Owen got home from the world baseball series he found his favorite watchdog had given birth to two litters during the ball season, one of 11 pups and one of seven—numbers that are considered pretty lucky by certain sportsmen.

Hockey Gossip

"The last shall be first," etc., as the old Biblical quotation reads and which may explain why Boston is the only National Hockey League team yet to report for pre-season training. Bruins won all the honors last year and no doubt are content to make a slow start in order to be sure of a good finish. They report at Hershey October 30.

Extending the comparison further one could use Toronto Maple Leafs. The Leafs finished second to the Bruins in last year's race and it was only yesterday they turned up at St. Catharines for training. The other five clubs have been working out for some time.

The Leafs have lost one of their most rugged players—Lex Chisholm. The best golfer on the club, he has decided to retire and devote his time to business. The club added another member, however, who is just as broad-beamed as Chisholm. He is Johnny (Peanuts) O'Flaherty, on loan to New York Americans all last season. This is Flaherty's second year as a professional.

Lester Patrick, silver-haired mentor of New York Rangers, admits he is partial to blondes. Which is one way of indicating his liking for Norm Tustin, the Owen Sound boy who played with Minneapolis Millers last year and finished second for the league's scoring honors. Patrick says he considers Tustin—one of the "blonded blondes" he has ever seen—one of the most promising of the rookies in camp.

The Rangers, in addition to their albino rookie, have another unusual feature—a predominance of right-wingers. Of the 17

Calder on Rush Trip to Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP)—Frank Calder, president of the National Hockey League, arrived here Tuesday night by plane from Montreal.

Calder said he did not know how long he would be staying, adding that he "probably will visit the New York Rangers' training camp" now in session here.

The N.H.L. president declined to comment when asked whether he intended to confer with officials of the Manitoba divisional board under the National War Services Act. The Manitoba board has announced its intention of refusing passport authority to hockey players of military age who wish to enter the United States to play hockey during the coming winter. A similar decision was announced by the Saskatchewan divisional board.

New York Rovers of the Eastern United States Amateur League and farm team of the N.H.L. Rangers, held their fall training session here last week but Manager Lester Patrick of the Rangers declined to disclose the names of players who had been offered contracts. The Rovers' personnel depends on the players receiving permission for passports from the Manitoba and Saskatchewan services boards, said Patrick. It would be unfair to name players approached until their military training status had been cleared up.

Calder said he had already talked with Patrick, but declined to say whether the question of passport authority had been discussed.

players at camp, no fewer than 10 shoot from the starboard side. And speaking of right-wingers, one just doesn't overlook Mush March. One of the smallest men in the league, March is starting his 13th season with Chicago. Which proves, if nothing else, that size isn't everything in hockey.

Dame, Fraser Outstanding Recruits

ST. HYACINTHE, Que. (CP)—It might just happen that this season Montreal Canadiens will come up with a rookie crop that will almost equal the standout group they sprung on their National Hockey League rivals last year.

Coach Dick Irvin isn't saying just yet how many of the youngsters trying out with Canadiens are going to stick, but some of them are showing a lot of promise and are going to be hard for the regulars to shake off.

Apparently the Canadian front office wasn't fooling when it announced after the conclusion of a disastrous 1939-40 season that the team was going to be made over. The making-over process started with a bang last year when the Habitants produced such young stars as Jack Adams, Joe Benoit, Elmer Lach, Tony Demera, Ken Reardon and John Quilty.

The process is still going on. The boys who made a hit with Montreal fans as rookies last year are veterans of the club now, but a new bunch of rookies have materialized and some of them look as though they will be staying for the season.

Bunny Dame of Trail, B.C., is one of them. A former teammate of Benoit, the tricky little left-winger has been showing plenty of stuff during the last week and is considered a cinch to gain a regular berth.

NEED RIGHT-WINGER

If Dame does gain a regular berth, he may indirectly help Canadiens fill a weak spot on the opposite wing. The club needs a good right-winger. They'll buy one if they can find one, but failing that they might shift Ray Gifford over to the right boards and maybe put Dame as a line-mate at left.

Then there's Legs Fraser, who played a bang-up game for North Sydney in the Cape Breton League last season, and has continued to display plenty of goaling prowess with the rookies this season. He's battling it out with veteran Bert Gardiner to see who is going to be the team's regular goalie.

The team may have a new face or so on defence too. Glen Harmon, who was with Winnipeg Rangers when they won the Memorial Cup last season; Len Bicknell of Nelson, B.C., and Leo Lamoureux, who played last season with Hamilton, all are showing promise.

Fighting for positions on the forward line in addition to Dame are Howard Riopelle, who used to play for Ottawa St. Pats with Quilty, and Herman Gruhn, a winger with Regina's Allan Cup team last season.

DETROIT SIGNS ROOKIES

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Red Wings Tuesday signed three rookies to contracts as manager Jack Adams continued to send his squad of 40 through two practice sessions a day in preparation for the National Hockey League season.

The recruits are Johnny Holota of Guelph, Ont.; Jerry Brown of Edmonton, and defenceman Cully Simon of Brockville, Ont. Holota is 21 years old, Simon 23 and Brown 25.

It was believed Holota would start the season with the Wings as utility man. The other two rookies quite likely will go to Detroit farm clubs at Indianapolis, Ind., or Omaha, Neb.

Plan Basketball Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP)—A nationwide program to commemorate the 50th year of basketball and raise funds to erect a memorial to the game's inventor, the late Dr. James Naismith of Almonte, Ont., at Springfield, Mass., was announced Tuesday by Roger L. Putnam, mayor of Springfield and chairman of the Naismith memorial committee.

The golden jubilee of basketball will be inaugurated in Madison Square Garden with a two-day tournament, November 19 and 24, in which four high-ranking club teams will participate.

An all-star game also is scheduled for the Chicago stadium, November 29.

Although notices of the celebration went out only a few days ago, Putnam said he already has received replies promising co-operation from 150 colleges and 115 high schools. The plan is for schools and clubs to stage one golden jubilee game with all or part of the receipts to go toward the erection of a $300,000 hall of fame, near the site where the first game was played.

ZIVIC SIGNED TO FIGHT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Fritz Zivic of Pittsburgh, former welterweight boxing champion, Tuesday was named by promoter Mike Jacobs to replace Red Cochrane, 147-pound king, as the opponent for Ray Robinson in a 10-round non-title bout at the Garden October 31.

Cochrane declined the fight since his manager, Willie Gilzenberg, is under a six months' suspension in this state for instructing his fighter to hold back during the early rounds of his recent fight with Lew Jenkins.

Prof. E. S. Farr

Sirois Report Too Expensive

Canada would have lost $40,000,000 in additional costs if the Sirois report, essentially a peace-time proposition, had been implemented, Prof. E. S. Farr, Liberal candidate in Oak Bay, told a meeting at Cadboro Bay Hall Tuesday night as he answered the Maitland call to have the report carried out.

That was a fact admitted in the report he said, adding British Columbia would be $6,500,000 a year poorer if it had adopted Plan I, the proposal supported by the Conservative leader.

That reduction would have placed the burden of education, social services and public works on liquor profits, the gas tax and motor licenses—sources of revenue which were subject to radical reduction in a war economy.

BURDEN MUNICIPALITIES
It would further have added to the burden placed on municipalities by forcing on them such items as relief and other services.

He contrasted the benefits provinces other than British Columbia, Alberta and Ontario would have received with the lack of benefits those dissentient provinces would have secured, but noted British Columbia had rallied quickly to assist war finance by vacating, for the duration, the income and corporation tax fields.

He sketched the improved condition of B.C. finances during the Pattullo administration. On that point he noted economies could be effected in B.C. if the present government followed the policy of its predecessor in curtailing pensions, hospital grants and mothers' allowances.

POST-WAR PLAN

As a post-war planning program, Prof. Farr advocated retention of those things that were good in the old and progress along those lines which were good in the new. He strongly supported hydro development in the province as a means of providing energy for basic industries, improved living conditions through greater use of domestic power and a sane rehabilitation program with demobilized service men finding in its development some constructive employment.

That program could be achieved, he said, through foresight, planning and enterprise with the co-ordination of those agencies which already exist.

G. A. A. Hebden, supporting Prof. Farr, spoke of the candidate's academic background and sound practicality, his contribution to the Greater Victoria community and his particular suitability for the scientific attitude of government observed by the Pattullo administration. Mr. Hebden spoke of the forward position taken by B.C. in labor and social legislation, declared B.C. was doing all it could to assist Canada in the war effort, and noted Canada itself was doing a marvelous job.

W. S. Kirkpatrick occupied the chair.

Opera Association To Present Revue

On Friday and Saturday, commencing at 8.30, the Victoria Grand Opera Association will present at the clubrooms, 1753 Rockland Avenue, a new and bright musical revue entitled "Bits and Pieces."

The following members will take part: Amy Walton, Phyllis Lockley, Audrey Lovell, Grace Scott, Olive Batchelor, Vivian McCahill, Carol Menzies, Mabel Alspen, Marjorie Barker, Peggy Bell, Dorothy Evans, Ralph Fromson, Arthur Jackman, Dave Oldham and William Cobbett. Eileen Chislett will be seen in new dance solos. After the performance each evening refreshments will be served.

Re-elect President

F. W. Jones was re-elected by acclamation president of the Victoria Local Council, Amalgamated Civil Servants of Canada, at the annual meeting Tuesday night.

G. K. Beeston was chosen vice-president and W. S. Fraser re-elected secretary-treasurer. Miss H. Parkinson was re-elected auditor. Named to the executive committee were A. H. Thorner, J. W. Derry and A. F. Needs.

Discussion of problems arising among federal civil servants took up the rest of the meeting.

Athlone Endorses Community Chest

Calling on Canadians as team-mates, the Earl of Athlone, Governor-General of Canada, has issued an appeal for co-operation in the Community Chest Campaign throughout the nation in a message received at local headquarters.

"I appeal once more to all Canadians to support the civilian welfare services through the medium of the Community Chests," the Governor-General's statement said. "In this war we are all members of a team which consists not only of the fighting forces, but also of the civilians at home. We are engaged in a common task. We have a single objective—to win the war. We must ensure that our welfare services are in no way handicapped by lack of funds in their great task of administering to human needs on the home front."

"To support voluntarily the moral and physical forces of our population is one of the privileges of a free people. It is also, especially in time of war, a solemn obligation, on the fulfillment of which largely depends the future welfare and happiness of the nation."

Retires in Victoria

Retired from the business staff of the Regina Leader-Post after 22 years of service, C. D. Garnsey is settling in Victoria at 1034 Falmouth Road. With him is Mrs. Garnsey.

Mr. Garnsey expressed surprise at the change the war has made on Victoria. The effect of the war is much more noticeable here than on the prairies, he said.

Treasury's Record Notable Says Hart

Finance Minister John Hart, speaking Tuesday night at Duncan in support of Arnold Flett, Liberal, cited the following achievements of the provincial treasury in the last eight years:

Reduction of the provincial gross debt by $2,070,000 since the government assumed office in 1933.

A $5,500,000 reduction in the net debt during the past 12 months.

Retirement of approximately $29,600,000 of debt since October 1, 1940.

Cessation of borrowing on account of unemployment relief.

A reduction of $1,647,155 in interest charges and sinking fund requirements on the public debt since December 30, 1940.

Downward revision in the average interest rate paid on the public debt from 4.732 per cent in 1933 to 4.17 per cent in 1941, and a phenomenal rise in the credit standing of British Columbia.

The most significant achievement of all was the reduction in the debt, Mr. Hart said. British Columbia today stands as the only province throughout Canada to record a decrease in the gross debt during the last eight years.

The gross debt of British Columbia November 1, 1933, was $166,998,595. Mr. Hart said. By November 1, of this year, debt requirements will have brought the total obligations down to $164,927,282, or $2,071,313 less than when the government assumed office. This, he added, had been accomplished in the face of chaotic financial conditions that existed at the time the government assumed office; in the face of heavy unemployment relief, which during the past eight years had cost the province $37,900,000; in the face of pleas of municipal assistance, which had been increased by $2,191,000 annually. At the same time the tax burden on small wage earners was lightened.

The net debt as at October 1, 1940, stood at $151,308,174. The net debt as at November 1, 1941, when further retirements have been completed, will be $145,761,138, or $5,547,036 less.

The effect of this improvement in British Columbia's credit position was borne out, he said, by a comparison of the yields received on provincial bonds. As an instance, 12-year 4½ per cent B.C. bonds sold in 1933 at $89.82, or a yield of 5.67 per cent. Today the same bonds are selling at $107.50, or $17.68 more with a yield of 3.72 per cent.

In eight years operating surpluses totaled $29,060,320. This money, he reported, was used as follows: Debt redemption $12,734,747 and unemployment relief $12,520,177, leaving a balance of $3,805,393 for further debt redemption, which will occur before November 1.

Mr. Hart concluded his address by outlining the manner in which financial aid had been given the Dominion government in respect to the nation's war effort.

The thank-offering meeting of the Anne Wilson Auxiliary will be held, with the senior W.M.S., at the First United Church, Monday afternoon, at 2.45.

Bail of $50 was set by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today in the case of Thomas B. Flake, who was charged with retaining in his possession a hat stolen from W. & J. Wilson. The case was adjourned until Thursday.

Gordon Campbell Ltd. of Vancouver has been awarded a contract for supplying 2,000 naval overcoats to the Department of Munitions and Supply at an approximate cost of $40,000, the trade and industry department here was advised today.

Ten motorists paid $250 each in City Police Court today when they pleaded guilty to parking charges. One was fined $5 for failing to make a hand signal when turning, and another was fined $5 for disobeying a traffic signal. One paid a $10 fine for exceeding the speed limit.

Enrolment of citizens interested in the technique of dramatics will take place at the Thursday evening class conducted in conjunction with the City Night Schools at Victoria High at 7.30. The carpentry and joinery class which usually meets on Monday at Central Junior High will meet this week Thursday at the senior high.

A reception will be tendered in the Y.W.C.A. Thursday at 4 to Rev. H. N. Konkle, secretary for Canada of the Mission to Lepers, with a view to giving friends and helpers the opportunity to meet him. During his visit to Victoria, Mr. Konkle will speak in St. John's Church, Central Baptist, Centennial United, Emmanuel Baptist and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

HELPED TO BUILD FRASER BRIDGE

Thirty-four years ago, Col. Irving A. Lindberg, then an engineer with the Great Northern Railway, was engaged in the construction of the old bridge across the Fraser River at New Westminster.

Today he is here from Nicaragua, where he is honorary commissioner of customs and financial agent for British interests.

He came to Victoria to meet his wife, an Englishwoman whom he married in London a decade ago. He hopes to inspect the new Pattullo bridge, which parallels the old structure, before returning to Managua, capital of Nicaragua.

General Anatasio Somoza, president of Nicaragua for the past six years, supports the aims of the democracies in the war and favors the Good Neighbor policy of the United States, states Col. Lindberg.

There has been no internal trouble in Nicaragua since the U.S. marines left there ten years ago.

The Nicaraguans eat Canadian wheat. Flour from good Canadian hard wheat, the colonel says, is manufactured in Nicaragua's only flour mill at the port of Corinto.

The Central American republic is prosperous. The country's chief industry, gold mining, is booming. Five years ago gold production was less than $1,000,000. Now the output represents $6,000,000 annually.

Extension Lecture

'Moral Issues at Stake'—Sedgewick

Progress is not inevitable in the opinion of Dr. G. G. Sedgewick, University of British Columbia, who gave the opening lecture of the Victoria University Extension Association series Tuesday evening.

The lecture was the first of the series to be held every two weeks throughout the winter, this being the 17th season the association has been in operation.

Tracing the history of social evolution, Dr. Sedgewick, in his address, entitled "What Is Progress?", recalled that 21 civilizations since earliest man had germinated, grown and decayed, leaving no mark of permanent progress. There were three concepts of evolution, he said—progress, retrogression and the economic or mechanical view, which is the modern view, first given impetus by the industrial revolution and emphasized by the advancement of physical science and the growth of the democratic principle.

These three factors contributed to a higher standard of living and increased physical comforts, "but," added Dr. Sedgewick, "that is not progress, for they have not prevented the impetus of war."

MORAL GROWTH

"Growth in modern scientific intelligence far outruns our moral and social growth and the maladjustment between the two is the cause of our present calamity," the speaker said. The basis for real, permanent human betterment is in moral causes alone, Dr. Sedgewick believes. "We must better ourselves as well as conquer nature and in that way remove the cause of tyranny and corruption without just covering it up."

Ideas that rugged individualism and closed nationalism bring a full individual life are gone, Dr. Sedgewick feels, and pointed to the results of the Nazi doctrine of racial superiority. "Individual happiness can only be attained in a satisfactory community, a theory expressed by Paul the Apostle in ancient times and one still to be attained."

Dr. Sedgewick said that progress went beyond individual rights and hope for humanity in the future rested in believing in a body of truth ascertainable to everyone, pointing to an omnipotent power not ourselves. He drew attention to the coincidental similarity of his beliefs to the Apostle's Creed.

The meeting was opened by Kennedy Drury, who introduced the speaker. Mrs. Esson Young paid tribute to two members of the association who had passed away recently, Mrs. E. C. Hart and P. E. Nicolle.

Next meeting will be October 27 when Prof. J. A. Irving of the Department of Philosophy and Psychology at the University of British Columbia, will speak on "American Civilization Today."

School Crowded

Parents and taxpayers of the Cloverdale district met Tuesday night to discuss over-crowding at the Cloverdale School. Those attending were told there were several classes of more than 40 pupils which was the maximum permitted by the Department of Education.

Discussion also centred around transportation problems to other schools, and the conducting of beginners' classes in basement rooms. Some felt that with the building of many new homes in the Cloverdale district, a new school would be necessary. A committee was appointed to further investigate the matter.

Seeks News of Sons

Help is sought by the Canadian Mounted Police in finding Edgar Bloom, last heard of in Victoria, Alder Bloom and Roland Bloom, last heard of in Pee Dee, Vancouver Island.

A request for the police to help her find them has been made by their mother, Mrs. A. Bloom, a Canadian national, now living in Copenhagen, where she was on a visit when war broke out. She is worried and in ill health.

She can be contacted through the personal message service available at any Canadian post office, her address being, Nordlandsgræde 6, Copenhagen, Denmark, or anyone having information of the sons can communicate with Sgt. A. B. Thornthwaite, Victoria Detachment of the Mounted Police.

When he pleaded guilty to a charge of being intoxicated while in charge of a car, Arthur Olivier was sentenced to seven days' imprisonment by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today.

City Revises Art Policies

In view of the fact teachers are available in city schools with adequate ability and special training to carry on art and music instruction, the City School Board Tuesday night decided to dispense with the services of special supervisors covering those courses, for the time being at least.

Miss Adeline Baxter, art supervisor, will retire on superannuation in December, and no successor will be appointed. Stanley Bulley, music supervisor, has been offered a position on the staff as music instructor, and Miss Barbara Fraser, music instructor, will be transferred to the regular teaching staff.

Tribute to the work of the various supervisors was paid by members of the board as they decided to adopt the new policy.

TEACHERS RETIRING

Announcement was also made Miss Meta Hodge, R.N., dental nurse, and a veteran of the Great War, and Miss Adele McLeod, for 30 years a teacher at Victoria High School, would also retire in December.

The board approved acceptance by H. L. Campbell, municipal inspector, of an invitation to address the Kootenay Valley Teachers' Association in convention at Nelson, November 24. Leave of absence for the three days needed for the trip was granted.

Appreciation of the progressive spirit shown among teachers locally was expressed by the board as it received a report from the inspector stating 40 staff members had taken 90 professional courses at summer schools in July and August.

As a stimulus to the War Savings Campaign being carried on in the schools it was reported to the board that a model tank would visit the schools during the coming month. Children would be given an opportunity to examine the tank and see for themselves what their savings may be used to purchase.

As a part of the celebration of Navy Week the naval authorities are making possible visits to naval vessels by schoolchildren. Elementary schoolchildren will proceed in parties of 50 in charge of their teachers to and from their schools.

TO RENEW LEASE

The board decided to offer Mrs. E. McPhee a renewal of the lease she holds on John and Turner Streets property, explaining it could not sell the holdings. Arrangements for the lease renewal were left with the chairman of the board and chairman of building and grounds and finance committees.

Mrs. Mary MacBride was appointed janitress at North Park School.

Cyclist Injured

Fifteen-year-old Fred Hamill, 435 Springfield Avenue, suffered slight concussion and an arm injury when he was thrown from his bicycle in a collision with a car driven by W. Owen, 155 South Turner Street, at Dallas Road and South Turner Street, at 7.45 Tuesday evening.

Young Hamill was taken home by Constables T. Stevenson and R. Berry of the city police, who said he was riding his bicycle without a light at the time of the accident.

To Call Bids for Protection Radio

Plans for the acquisition of a two-way radio system for Greater Victoria police and fire departments as well as the Royal Canadian Navy were advanced at a joint meeting under Alderman Archie Wills, city fire wardens chairman, in the City Hall yesterday.

Following encouraging discussion, during which the navy offered to shoulder 25 per cent of the costs of a central transmitter and 25 per cent of its maintenance, the meeting called for tenders for the equipment.

In addition to the central unit, bids will be sought on at least 10 radiotelephone units for use in the city, Oak Bay, Saanich, Esquimalt, Sidney, Sooke and on the highway to Goldstream.

Location of the central transmitter was discussed, J. A. McLennan, city police chief, suggesting it be located in police headquarters, where upkeep costs could be reduced to a minimum. Alex. Munroe, city fire chief, said it could be placed in the fire hall alarm room.

The meeting regretted the absence from the meeting of provincial government and Esquimalt council representatives. Reeve L. Woodhouse led the Oak Bay representatives and Reeve L. H. Passmore those from Saanich. Both included police and fire chiefs.

Lt.-Cmdr. R. P. Ponder and Lt.-Cmdr. H. W. Balfour led the navy's delegation. Views were expressed the

Mrs Hodges Seeks Better Housing

Mrs. Nancy Hodges, Liberal candidate in Victoria, proposed rationalization of housing plans, with government aid, as a means of providing low rental homes when she spoke at a campaign meeting Tuesday night in Sir James Douglas School.

Mrs. Hodges said she had studied the housing situation closely and believed there was need for a program not only as a war measure but to fit into the post war rehabilitation scheme.

She noted the need, particularly, for accommodation of wives of sailors, soldiers and airmen and their families at the present time. Their means were not great and they could not afford to pay high rentals, but they were entitled to decent homes, she said, quoting "a country that is fit for heroes to fight for is fit for heroes to live in."

She described what was being done in the United States in the way of constructing cheap, comfortable homes, notably in the areas where war industries had expanded population.

While it might not be strictly a provincial problem, she thought the provincial government could do much to assist in backing up both civic and federal effort.

PRACTICAL STEPS

As a practical beginning, Mrs. Hodges suggested two moves, first the re-enactment of legislation for low-rental municipal housing schemes backed by the federal government; second, changes in the "east-minded" specifications for homes under the National Housing Act so they could be brought within the means of those on moderate incomes. On the latter point she said houses in B.C. did not need storm windows, double walls and the other accessories which added to the cost.

Mrs. Hodges said better housing would pave the way to solution of many other problems, such as juvenile delinquency, youth difficulties and the other trials arising in families which do not have comfortable homes.

The candidate also made a plea for greater representation of women in Parliament. Male politicians, she conceded, had done a fairly good job, considering all things. Recalling, however, the early fights for women's suffrage, she did not think women had taken full advantage of the fight they had won, and particularly in the present times their counsel in affairs of state could be valuable.

FIRST SPEECH

Miss Buntie Sloan, daughter of Mr. Justice Gordon Sloan, spoke in Mrs. Hodges' support, making her first appearance on a platform and announcing she would cast the first vote of her life for the Liberals.

Her reasons for doing this she summed up in an excellent review of the social legislation enacted by Liberal governments over the last 20 years. She said there was a human approach in such things as the Adoption Act amendments, allowing secrecy in dealing with documents, in the Vital Statistics Act permitting a child by law to take the name of foster parents. Through the Equal Guardianship of Infants Act parents were allowed equal rights with a child when they separated. Bus services were provided for school children. Trade schools gave boys a chance in life. New Haven picked up and helped rehabilitate wayward young men. Through apprenticeships, factory inspection, minimum wage and maximum hour laws, Pro-Ree courses, medical aid and health services protection was offered at all stages of life. It continued into such things as mothers' pensions and finally old age pensions.

"Some of these statutes may seem dull to read. But when you study them they become alive and vital. I am proud to think I can vote for a party that has put them into force and will continue to work for such progressive legislation," Miss Sloan said.

HEALTH INSURANCE

David Evans, president of the Victoria Welsh Society, was the third speaker, and said he was gratified by Provincial Secretary G. M. Weir's promise Monday night that health insurance was coming. Mr. Evans said he had been in England at the time of the fight for health insurance there and he realized that many difficulties must be overcome before it came into operation.

Mr. Evans called Premier Pattullo an aggressive leader who kept abreast of the times. At the Sirols conference the Premier had full support of his cabinet, he said. It was only natural the viewpoint of the east and west of such a nation as Canada should differ and the emergency of war was no time to attempt a reconciliation of such vital issues.

M. B. Jackson, K.C., was chairman.

Reorganized Esquimalt A.R.P.

The Esquimalt A.R.P. has been reorganized, the municipality being divided into four districts with a warden in charge of each.

Following are the civilian protection officials who were appointed, all on the Esquimalt Council or in the employ of the municipality.

Reeve Alex Lockley, chairman; Councillor Albert Heald, chief warden; Councillors John Hadfield, J. P. A. Christensen, H. Dobson and G. R. Guillemaud, district wardens; H. W. Pecknold, chief of police, in charge of regular and auxiliary fire service; Councillor H. F. Eaton, head of first aid, and Percy McCulloch, works foreman, in charge of engineering and gas decontamination.

Four assistant district wardens will be chosen by the district wardens as will one patrol leader for each section of five men.

Officials have asked that all persons serving as wardens before the reorganization still volunteer their services. Further volunteers are needed and the public is asked to co-operate.

3,000 to March

Three thousand members of the Navy, Army and Air Force will participate in a war savings parade in Victoria Saturday. The march will be in aid of Victoria's two-tank-a-month savings campaign.

Seven bands will enliven the parade with martial music and all men will march fully equipped. A detachment from the R.A.F. as well as the R.C.A.F. will be on parade. Trucks covered with posters urging the purchase of war savings certificates will be one of the features of the parade.

Following is the route: Start Hillside and Douglas, Douglas to Yates, Yates to Blanshard, to Fort, Fort to Douglas, Douglas to Belleville, Belleville to Government, Government to Yates, the dispersal point.

A saluting base will be constructed on Government in front of the Empress Hotel, where military, naval and air force heads, and civilian officials will review the march past.

In front of the Empress Hotel the salute will be taken by Lieutenant Governor W. C. Woodward, attended by Commodore W. J. R. Beech, R.C.N.; Major-General R. O. Alexander; Air Commodore A. E. Godfrey, R.C.A.F.; Mayor A. McGavin, Reeve W. L. Woodhouse, Oak Bay; Reeve L. H. Passmore, Saanich, and Reeve A. Lockley, Esquimalt, and the aides to the heads of the three services.

The Navy band will lead the parade with a detachment of ratings immediately following.

Sentenced in London

LONDON (CP).—Maurice Friedlander, 47, a London general agent, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor and fine £300 ($1,335), when convicted on "black market" charges of offering for sale 46,800 tins of fruit at prices above the official maximum.

In another case, Joseph Collier, 23, an army deserter, was sentenced to three years after pleading guilty of stealing goods which eventually found their way on to the black market. He stole 84 cases of oranges worth £120 and 5,600 pounds of sugar, the property of his employer.

Museum Director Addresses Kiwanis

Drawing a parallel between business and animal advertising, Dr. J. C. Carl, acting director of the provincial museum, speaking at Kiwanis Club luncheon Tuesday, said animals advertised in connection with mating activities and with danger signals.

Starting with the lower forms of animal life in bygone centuries, Dr. Carl described in detail the sounds and sound-producing mechanisms of various insects, birds and animals. He used numerous gadgets to illustrate the methods of sound production. On the motion of Harold Diggon the Kiwanis Club will send a letter of sympathy to the family of the late Chief Justice M. A. Macdonald. "He was loved for his human qualities," said Mr. Diggon. He spoke of the valuable contribution he had made to Kiwanis.

With well over 300 boxes of apples sold, The Kiwanis Club start deliveries this week. The first carload will arrive tomorrow. The drive will be climaxed with an apple tag day October 18. Proceeds of the drive go to the Lord Mayor's Fund.

Hot Record Club Formed at College

Don Cunliffe was elected president at the Records Club at Victoria College, with secretary, Jim Squire; treasurer, Tom Whittemore.

This organization will soon join the parent body, which is an international organization with headquarters in New York. The members will then be entitled to all literature which is published by Down Beat Magazine. The motto of this club is "Swing Has Come to College: Long Live the Swing."

Students' Council elections results are announced: Representative of men's athletic association, Jack Gatehouse; representative of women's athletic association, Philippa Beckton; first year men's representative, Don Seatts; fire year women's representative, Barbara Smith. This completes the governing body of the school, the executive of which was elected last term. It is as follows: President, John Crookston; secretary, Margaret Sedgely; treasurer, Nick Fraser; representative of the literary and scientific society, Clemency Ord.

Special Bursaries To Science Students

Through a special Dominion-provincial fund, science students at University of British Columbia who will pledge their services to the war effort, will receive special bursaries to help in their studies.

Science students to receive the assistance will be selected. They will include leading undergraduates taking courses in applied science, engineering, pre-medical or pre-dental courses.

A fund of $6,000 has been established jointly by the two governments, and individual grants up to $300 per student will be made. The purpose is to assist those who are prepared to go forward in the scientific field in aiding the war effort, Education Minister G. M. Weir explained here.

More Women Cooks For War Jobs

An urgent call went out from the Department of National War Services today for cooks. Applicants will be issued smart uniforms and enlisted in the Canadian Women's Army Corps or the Canadian Women's Auxiliary Air Force if accepted.

The main requirement is that they know simple recipes for the "home-cooked" style of food.

There will be no delay in handling applications. If successful, the volunteers will be notified at once to report for a medical examination.

Rate of pay is 90 cents a day, with uniform, medical services and board supplied. Chances for promotion in the cooking branch will be as good as in any other trade of the service auxiliaries. Application forms are available at all R.C.A.F. recruiting centres, at military district headquarters and at the offices of National War Services divisional registrars throughout Canada.

Successful volunteers for the Canadian Women's Auxiliary Air

Force will be sent for three weeks of training at Haverhill College, followed by a special six weeks' cooking course at Guelph. Following this, they will be posted at R.C.A.F. stations.

LANGFORD

The first card party of the season sponsored by the Langford Women's Institute will be held this evening at 8 in the Dunford Road hall. Bridge and 500 will be played.

The Women's Auxiliary to

Prince Edward branch, Canadian Legion, has arranged a jamboree with stalls and contests for December 6.

More Jobs for Women

LONDON (CP).—The war has forced the London Stock Exchange to finally start employing girls on the floor of the house. Two have been given jobs marking up prices on the various listing boards.

Try This Old Home-Mixed Cough Relief. Surprising!

Anyone Can Make It. No Cooking. Big Saving.

You may not know it, but, in your own kitchen, and in just a moment, you can easily prepare a really surprising relief for coughs due to colds. It's old-fashioned—your mother probably used it—but for real results, it is hard to beat.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed. No trouble at all. Then get 21 ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for prompt action in throat and bronchial irritations.

Put the Pinex into a 16 ounce bottle, and add your syrup. Thus you make sixteen ounces of really splendid cough syrup, and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its pleasant taste.

And for quick relief, it's splendid. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, eases the soreness, makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep. Just try it, and if not pleased, your money will be refunded.

are called Job-Rated trucks because Dodge makes available a great many balanced combinations of engines, frames, springs, axles, transmissions and tires to meet 98% of all hauling needs—a Job-Rated truck for every job.

Extra Power . . . Extra Stamina . . . Extra Pull

POWER is the big need today . . . power to haul all types of loads quickly, efficiently, dependably, safely, and at lower cost.

Dodge meets this demand for power with a general increase in the power capacity of all 1942 Dodge engines from 1/2-ton to 3-ton trucks.

Transmissions, clutches and rear axles match these new power ratings; brakes, springs and frames will take care of tough going for a long time . . . these trucks are built to fit the job and stay on the job.

In trucks today, you want the best . . . you need the best. You get it in the new Dodge Job-Rated Truck that fits your job.

Why not see your nearest Dodge Dealer now!

DODGE Job-Rated TRUCKS COVER 98% OF ALL HAULING NEEDS!

Show for Troops

A concert party composed of musicians, vocal and instrumental, and tap dancers, entertained the Albert Head troops in the sergeants' mess last week. The show, which was produced under the leadership of Alf Adams, was put on by the Fragments, concert party of the Canadian Legion. Judged by the response it was very successful.

Army Commissions First Chinese
Roger Cheng, 26-year-old Vancouver Chinese, received his second lieutenant's stripes in the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals last week, and thus won the distinction of being the first of his race to be commissioned in the Canadian army.

A graduate in electrical engineering of McGill University, Lieut. Cheng joined the Canadian Officers' Training Corps at the University of British Columbia last winter. He spent several weeks at Nanaimo camp in advanced training this summer.

Lieut. Cheng was born in Lillooet and his father was born in the province. His grandparents were among the earliest farmers of the Lillooet district.

ADVANCED TRAINING—After a preliminary course at Vancouver, Alan George Jordan, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jordan, 1621 Fernwood Road, is now in Toronto taking advanced training in aero-mechanics. He joined Royal Canadian Air Force last June. A Victoria boy, he received his education at Boys Central and Victoria High Schools.

City Official Joins R.C.A.F. Engineers
Ralph Davis, assistant city engineer, today prepared a letter to the City Council asking for leave of absence for war service. He will leave shortly to join the special reserve, R.C.A.F., Aeronautical Engineering Branch.

Ralph is the fourth of the Davis brothers to join the services. Don is a sub-lieutenant in R.C.N.V.R.;

Men in Services May Vote Anywhere
Men on active service in British Columbia will be able to vote at any polling station on election day so long as they are registered on a voters' list, Capt. W. R. Webster, special officer in charge of the active service vote, said today.

Capt. Webster said there was a misconception among some service men that if they had been moved from the place they were registered they would not be able to vote. This is not the case, he said.

Any man who has moved to another part of the province since he registered can vote as an absentee, either at an active service polling station or at a regular civilian polling booth wherever he may happen to be located on election day.

Capt. Webster said taking of the service vote of B.C. men stationed in the other eight provinces and Newfoundland is proceeding this week. It will finish tomorrow. The overseas vote was completed Saturday.

Less Illegitimacy
Decrease in the ratio of illegitimate births in British Columbia since war started.

In 1939 out of 13,814 registered births 509 were illegitimate or 3.6 per cent. In 1938 the rate was 3.69 per cent.

In 1940, first full year there were 531 illegitimate births out of 15,616 registered, or 3.4 per cent.

In the first six months of 1941 264 out of 8,105 registered births were illegitimate or 3.25 per cent. Last year, officials said, the legal provisions for legitimizing births were used more widely than ever before, with 131 legitimations, as compared with 33 in 1939. This was mainly due, it was explained, to the requirements of men enlisting in the services who needed legitimations to get allowances for their dependents.

Mr. Average Tourist Stays 3 Days, Spends $21
The average tourist in British Columbia spends $7 a day and stays here for three days, Major Gordon Smith, director of B.C. Government Travel Bureau, has discovered in a special questionnaire survey.

His figure is compiled from 500 replies received to circulars sent out to a cross-section of the visiting public this year.

Major Smith said he had discovered several other facts about the travel business, such as hunting, fishing and yachting parties spend the most; visitors from other Canadian provinces spend less than Americans but stay longer; visitors from the Orient stay the longest.

ATLAS THEATRE
This is a picture of a man pretending to be crazy. William Powell is the man, and he's putting on the crazy act in order to prevent Myrna Loy from divorcing him. That's one of the things that happens in "Love Crazy," latest of the Powell-Loy marital mix-ups, which is on the Atlas screen today. The hilarious action was directed by Jack Conway.

PLAZA THEATRE
"Old Bill and Son," a sparkling new British picture starring Bruce Bairnsfather's world-famous character, Old Bill, is now showing at the Plaza Theatre. It is a picture which presents the human element and the funny side of army life.

DOMINION THEATRE
One of the season's gayest comedy-romances, Warner Bros.' hilarious new film, "Kisses for Breakfast," is currently at the Dominion Theatre. Dennis Morgan portrays the man-about-town who develops amnesia when an old friend bops him over the head. Shirley Ross and Jane Wyatt are a couple of girls he marries in forgetful moments.

RIO THEATRE
It happened in Hollywood. Stage 16, at Universal during the filming of "Buck Privates," currently screening at the Rio Theatre.

The set was a replica of an army camp recreation centre, and in addition to the stars, Abbott and Costello and the Andrews sisters, there were hundreds of young "conscripts" at the piano, writing back home, or reading books.

CLARK GABLE Stars at Atlas
Clark Gable and Rosalind Russell combine their co-starring talents with highly diverting results in "They Met in Bombay," which will open tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre. Immediately suggesting action, plus romance and fun, the pairing accounts for all three in copious measure.

Gable and Miss Russell are linked as a pair of confidence operators who meet in Bombay, colorful cross-roads of the Far East, with separate designs on a fortune in diamonds. Gable is a soldier of fortune turned opportunist. Miss Russell is a chic adventuress moving in smart circles. They clash at the beginning, and again when the loot comes between them, but they are forced to flee together before the police. On a rusty freighter plying the China seas their carefully hidden sentimentality breaks through. Tossed into the maelstrom of Oriental war, they reach a turning point in their heretofore ruthless lives.

Foreign Intrigue in Wanger Picture
Breath-taking excitement, romance and drama, mystery and intrigue are unfolded in the thrill-packed story of Walter Wanger's "Foreign Correspondent," which was directed by Alfred Hitchcock with a prominent stellar cast and is slated for a premiere at the York Theatre on Thursday. Mr. Wanger decided to make "Foreign Correspondent" in recognition of the intrepid group of newspapermen who are serving as the nation's eyes and ears during the European debacle, risking their lives daily in order to keep their own people informed of the rapidly-shifting panorama of war.

"Foreign Correspondent" has in its principal roles Joel McCrea, Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall, George Sanders and Robert Benchley.

H.M.C.S. Moolock Launched Today

Christened by Mrs. F. R. Sadd, H.M.C.S. Moolock was successfully launched at a west coast shipyard today.

It was the last unit of the Fishermen's Reserve type of craft built under the current program for coastal service.

As she smashed the traditional bottle across the prow at midday, Mrs. Sadd said "I christen thee H.M.C.S. Moolock," and the vessel glided into the water to the plaudits of the small gathering of naval officers and others present.

The sponsor carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums presented to her by Miss Joyce Foster.

The naval padres officiating at the launching ceremony were Rev. Arthur Bischlager and Rev. Father A. B. Wood.

Moolock, it was explained at the reception held subsequent to the launching, is the Chinook name for elk.

Lt.-Cmdr. (E) G. Hull, R.C.N.,

represented the supervising naval overseer at the launching.

Other invited guests included Cmdr. J. McCulloch and Mrs. McCulloch; Lt.-Cmdr. F. R. Sadd, Paymaster Sub-Lt. P. H. Powers, Lieut. (SB) G. A. Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence; Skipper Coxswain P. Q. R. Sowerby and Mrs. Sowerby; Skipper-Coxswain W. J. Arnet and Mrs. Arnet; Skipper-Coxswain J. H. Auchterlonie and Mrs. Auchterlonie; Sqdn.-Ldr. R. M. Wynd, R.C.A.F.; Flt.-Lt. Diamond, F.O. Johnson, Harry A. Barnett, H. B. Elworthy, T. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Aylmer, J. English, J. D. S. Benson, Mrs. H. Davis and Mrs. R. Firkins.

The launching arrangements were in charge of Bertram Foster and Roy Firkins.

Wheat

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat prices fell more than 2 cents and soybeans 4 to almost 6 cents a bushel in late trading today to lead a general decline of grain values. The downturn carried wheat and bean prices to the lowest levels since late in August. Unfavorable war news was blamed for much of the selling wheat.

WINNIPEG (CP)—A big Canadian wheat export trade overnight failed to encourage large-scale buying on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. At the close wheat futures were 1 to 3 cents lower, October 72½ cents, December 74 and May 77½.

Lower Chicago prices and belief that improved weather in western Canada will bring a rush of coarse grains on the market brought on liquidation in coarse grains while fair offerings proved weighty in the wheat pit. Sale of 2,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat to the United Kingdom was reported. The business, traders said, included 1,000,000 bushels of wheat now in store at Duluth.

Cash wheat operations followed trend of previous sessions with odd carloads of Nos. 1 and 2 changing hands.

Barley futures eased about 2 cents near the close after gaining more than a cent in the previous session. A few sales pushed flax futures down more than 5 cents. Oats held firm most of the session while rye was off ½ cent.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK (AP)—Share leaders fell back today under pressure of news from the Russian front and commodity prices slumped in sympathy. Only about 500,000 shares changed hands.

Some of the better-known issues, such as Consolidated Edison, Union Pacific and Westinghouse, reached new lows for the year.

Traders were keeping close to cover, awaiting developments which might signalize a turn in the tide of battle on the eastern front. Almost equally as important in their minds was the defence labor situation in the United States. Neither prospect was adjudged pleasing.

Among Canadian stocks, Hiram Walker advanced ¼ and Lake Shore Mines ½. In the bond market Canada 4s were unchanged.

Railway Trains Cross Mountains of Syria

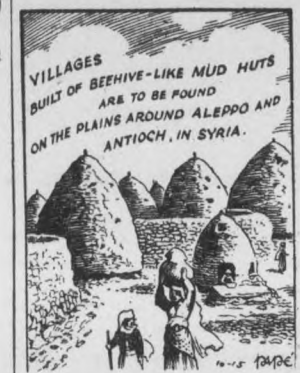

Yesterday I said that the part of Syria called Lebanon has cedar trees, but not so many as in olden times.

Other parts of Syria have no trees at all, and the people cannot afford to buy lumber to build homes. A common custom is to make bricks out of mud, and to use them in building houses.

Near the city of Aleppo are villages with homes of beehive shape, and composed of mud bricks. There are a few openings for doors and windows in such homes, but they are dark inside—as dark as an average barn, and darker than many barns.

Yet Syria is not in every way "behind the times." It has a few fairly large cities which contain well-built houses.

The western side of Syria has mountains and forests. The rain in that area is from 15 to 40 inches per year, and crops grow well.

Thousands of tons of cotton are raised in Syria each year, also a great deal of sugar cane and hemp. The wheat crop sometimes is above 1,000,000 tons. Oranges, lemons and bananas are other important products.

Railroads have been laid across Syria. They join Damascus, Beirut and other cities. A person can go over the Lebanon mountains by rail, and will have beautiful views to see along the way.

Arabs, Turks, Jews and Kurds are to be found in the cities and country districts of Syria. Most of the people follow the religion of Mohammed, but about 500,000 are Christians.

Syria was invaded by the Christian Crusaders, and a part of it was included in the Christian "Kingdom of Jerusalem."

Mongols entered Syria close to 700 years ago. In the year 1516 it fell under the power of Turkey, and the Turks ruled it until the World War of 1914-1918.

In that war the Turks lined up with Germany and Austria-Hungary. British soldiers were helped by Arabs who wanted to fight against Turkish rule. In the autumn of 1918, General Allenby led the British forces through Syria.

After peace was made, France was given a "mandate" over Syria. The French were allowed to rule Syria as a kind of colony for a time, but were not given the right to lasting rule. The Syrians were told that they later would be able to run their own country.

In the present World War, the British took over Syria, and last month declared it a republic.

HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 16
Good and evil appear balanced in the forecast for today. This may be a day of contradictions. Obstacles may stand in the way of persons in the business world. Toward evening a more favorable trend is noted.
Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of an interesting year. Children born on this day may be generous and impulsive.

Annulment Request Dismissed By Judge

MONTREAL (CP)—Mr. Justice Forest has dismissed an action taken by Roland Decelle of Beloeil, Que., to annul his marriage to Elizabeth Ranchow in 1934.

Decelle is a Roman Catholic and Elizabeth Ranchow a Protestant. The marriage was performed by Rev. J. M. MacGillivray in Central Presbyterian Church in Victoria, while Decelle was a resident of Vancouver.

The case was the first to come before the Court of Kings Bench ruled that a mixed marriage performed by a Protestant minister was legal under Quebec law. However Mr. Justice Forest said he would dismiss the case because Decelle was domiciled at Vancouver at the time of the marriage and the action should have been taken in British Columbia courts.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I am engaged to a young man with whom I am much in love, but he insists on our starting housekeeping as soon as we marry, and I am not willing to do this. He wants to furnish a lovely home for me, but I wouldn't know how to keep it lovely. I don't know anything about housekeeping and have told him so, but he doesn't seem to care. What shall I do? MARIE.

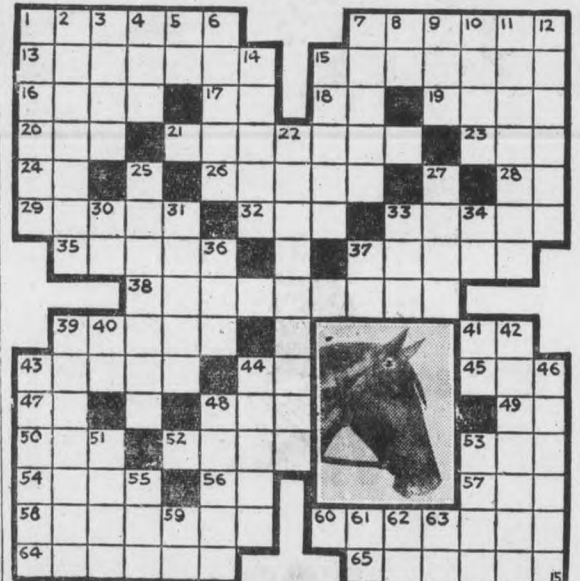

Answer: Either break the engagement and refuse to marry the young man, or else go to work and learn how to be a good housekeeper. I don't think a woman can do a more dishonest thing than to marry a man who wants a home and refuse to make it for him. She is getting money under false pretenses.

And just as a wife can get a divorce from her husband on the grounds of nonsupport, a man should be able to get a divorce from his wife for noncooking.

You say you don't know anything about housekeeping. It is a pity and a shame that your mother hasn't taught you the one thing that every woman needs most to know, but if she has neglected your education there are plenty of cooking schools to which you can go. And, anyway, any girl who can read can buy a cookbook and make herself a chef in six months if she wants to do so.

DOROTHY DIX.

Pledge On Marketing
N. W. Whittaker, K.C., Saanich Liberal candidate, Tuesday night pledged himself to aid farmers who believed they had suffered injustices under the marketing schemes. Speaking at Women's Institute Hall, Brentwood, Mr. Whittaker said he realized there were cases in which hardship had been worked, but pointed out that in his eight years as a member for Saanich none of his constituents had approached him with complaints about the act until the present election campaign started.

He said he would have been pleased at any time to hear any questions about the scheme and suggested that if he were re-elected those who felt injustice had been done should let him know and he would do his best to seek a remedy. Mr. Whittaker noted that neither of his political opponents made any concrete suggestions for amending the Marketing Act.

Mr. Whittaker warmly defended the government's action at the Sirols conference, saying they had done the people of British Columbia a great service in having the question of income tax rights laid over to be settled after the war. He challenged his opponents to say they would surrender their major source of B.C. revenue for all time. So far they had refused to discuss the issue on its merits, he said.

Dealing with the question of post-war rehabilitation, Mr. Whittaker pointed out the federal government had already drawn up plans for giving ex-service men allowances while they completed interrupted educational courses and until they could be placed in employment. Benefits of the Unemployment Insurance Act would be extended to ex-service men on a basis of equality with civilian employees. In this connection he expressed the view that high income taxes would have to continue some time after the war to take care of employment, health and education. Lorne Thompson was chairman.

Health Insurance

Martin Neilson, C.C.F. candidate in Saanich, spoke at Marigold Hall and called failure of the Liberals to get health insurance operating a betrayal of the people's confidence. He said maximum social services were a vital necessity. The C.C.F. plan was to provide medical services with emphasis on prevention rather than cure.

Mr. Neilson said the C.C.F. would use the profits of monopolistic industry to pay higher old age pensions, mothers' pensions and pensions for the blind. Electric utilities, gas and oil distribution and similar enterprises would be socialized.

Mrs. Laura Jamieson reviewed work of C.C.F. members in the Legislature, saying the Liberals had adopted many of their ideas. Rejecting the theory that C.C.F. plans were unworkable, she said a labor government in New Zealand was putting similar schemes into practice right now.

No Desire to Help

Lieut.-Col. Macgregor Macintosh, speaking at Gordon Head, charged the Pattullo government had shown no real desire to help Ottawa in the war effort and he declared it was time the government showed equal sacrifice to that demanded of the people.

Col. Macintosh said the appointment of a Royal Commission to investigate marketing showed a lack of courage on the government's part. It should have offered the necessary changes in the law on its own responsibility, he asserted. The candidate also dealt with his proposal for repatriating Japanese, declaring since the Japanese here could not be assimilated steps should be taken to deal with the problem.

For Ex-service Men

At Shawigan Lake Tuesday night, W. T. Straith, K.C., spoke on behalf of Commander C. T. Beard, Liberal candidate in Esquimalt. He said the Liberals were already studying carefully the needs of ex-service men after the war and he thought Commander Beard admirably suited to deal with this problem.

Mr. Straith highly praised the Liberals' financial record, noting that while Conservatives had increased the debt $62,000,000 in five years, Finance Minister Hart had achieved a reduction. He questioned Conservative highway proposals when they had been responsible for one of the most extravagant and wasteful eras of road building in B.C. history.

Commander Beard described the Conservatives as lacking cohesion and the C.C.F. as dreamers, stating the Liberals offered the only sane course of administration.

Invitation

Harry Webber, C.C.F., today issued an open invitation to E. V. Finland, Conservative, and Commander Beard, Liberal, to hold an open free-for-all meeting in Esquimalt on election eve.

Writes Webber: "True purpose of political discussion is to inform the voters of the issues involved. The only way the voter can arrive at correct choice of a candidate is through a clear understanding of the program each candidate stands for."

"I, therefore, take this opportunity of inviting you, my fellow-candidates in this riding, to join with me in holding a joint meeting in Esquimalt on October 20. "Let the voters of the largest centre of population in the riding see and hear the candidates together at the same meeting. I assume that each of us is ready and willing to face a fair test of his sincerity and the soundness of his principles, to face a fair comparison with his opponents."

Producers 'Squeezed'

Flying Officer E. V. Finland, Conservative, was at Colwood Hall Tuesday night and he charged that small producers were being squeezed by the Marketing Act which operated to the benefit of large concerns controlled by foreign interests.

He said the act was being used so that farm products from as far south as California could be dumped in the province, and the government had declined to force a remedy.

Mr. Finland charged patronage in road construction, saying that in Kaslo-Slocan a bridge had been built more than a hundred yards from the end of a highway out of lumber supplied by a mill owned by the Minister of Public Works.

The candidate was asked by Rev. Peter Disney if the Conservatives would favor religious instruction in the public and high schools. He replied that the question raised a number of delicate points and required deep consideration.

C.C.F. Take Credit

Harry Webber, C.C.F. candidate in Esquimalt, spoke Tuesday night at Sooke, and claimed credit to the C.C.F. for most of the progressive legislation passed in the last eight years. Pressure of the C.C.F. group had forced the government to bring down the legislation, he said. However, he decried the fact that health insurance and other laws affecting the general welfare had been left on the shelf, because, he said, they conflicted with private interests.

Mr. Webber said the government elected next week would be in power, probably, when the war ended, and the C.C.F. were the only ones with proper plans for the reconstruction period.

At Salt Spring

Mayor Victor B. Harrison of Nanaimo, Conservative candidate in Nanaimo and The Islands, said at Fulford that the Islands riding had been submerged with Nanaimo purely for the benefit of the politicians, and he urged the islanders to register a protest vote. He claimed the Pattullo government had failed to accept its proper responsibility in not co-operating at the Sirols conference.

Conscription

At Port Alberni Tuesday night, Premier Pattullo said he had always been in favor of conscription of all available men for service abroad, but that the federal government had elected to follow a course of voluntary enlistment and he did not wish to embarrass the Ottawa government.

The Premier made his remarks on conscription in answer to a questioner at a meeting in support of James Mowat, Liberal candidate.

Mr. Pattullo said there were no experienced men in either the C.C.F. or Conservative parties to form a cabinet, and that he believed the experience that British Columbia had given him and his cabinet should be used a lot longer.

Peace River Oil

R. L. Maitland, Conservative leader, told electors in Vancouver Point Grey Tuesday night that he had recently visited the British Columbia government's oil-drilling operations at Commotion Creek, in the Peace River district, and that "there was quite a commotion when I arrived."

He said nearly all the questions he put to the men in charge of the operation received the answer "You must ask Mr. Pattullo. I am not allowed to give information."

Mr. Maitland criticized the government's spending policy and what he termed "gambling in the oil business with public money."

"If I am elected Premier of this province I shall leave oil well speculation to people who know something about the oil business," he said. "There will be no more gambling with public funds."

School Taxes

The school tax, says Sam Guthrie, Cowichan-Newcastle C.C.F. candidate, should be taken from the land progressively. Speaking at Chemainus, Mr. Guthrie said the financing of schools out of the province's consolidated revenue would place the larger part of the burden on those best able to pay, the people with larger incomes.

Mr. Guthrie asserted that many of the C.C.F.'s proposals for bettering the conditions of working class people had been adopted by the Legislature because they were sound.

He advocated guaranteed prices for farm produce and added that B.C. could well follow New Zealand in this and other things like health services and old age pensions.

Mr. Guthrie said the current increase in road work was part of the election. He urged government control of utilities and services as it controls the liquor business.

Home Again

Cabinet ministers who have been touring the province to give accounts of their stewardship are now getting back to their home ridings for the last week of the campaign. Finance Minister Hart, who has been on a swing through the interior, returned at the weekend, and reported a growing interest in the contest. Mr. Hart went to Duncan last night. Tomorrow night he will make his major speech of the campaign in Victoria, along with Premier Pattullo and Provincial Secretary G. M. Weir, at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

Conservative leader R. L. Maitland is also back on the coast after a tour of the interior. Mr. Maitland is going to wind up his campaign at Sooke next Monday night with a speech in support of Flying Officer E. V. Finland.

Blood From Cattle
For Transfusions

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Part of the bluest blood of United States dairy and beef cattle soon will be flowing in the veins of human beings who require blood transfusions.

Dr. M. V. Veldee, surgeon of the National Institute of Health, U.S. Public Health Service, told the American Public Health Association here he has already transfused serum albumin, one of the protein substances found in most animal tissues, from cows to human volunteers.

"It has been demonstrated that crystalline serum albumin can be isolated from bovine blood at low cost and it is surprisingly similar to the same fraction from human blood," he added.

15 Days for Begging

Using as an excuse for begging money in the Modern Cafe, Fisgard Street, that he had a wife and seven children in Vancouver to support and his relief cheque was small, Patrick O'Connor was sentenced to 15 days in jail by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today.

O'Connor appeared on remand from Tuesday when he pleaded guilty to the charge and gave the story of his family in Vancouver. The magistrate adjourned the case until today for investigation.

Constable Alex Briggs of the city police said he saw O'Connor go to a booth in the cafe, hand a printed card to the occupant of the booth, who read it and returned it with some money.

District 5C Saanich A.R.P. will meet Thursday at 8 in Tillicum School when a lecture on bombs will be given.
